

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepareth a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

A Little While

Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow,

But remember me in every tomorrow...

Remember the joy, the laughter,

the smiles,

I've only gone to rest a little while.

Although my leaving

causes pain and grief

My going has eased my hurt

And given me relief.

So dry your eyes and remember me,

Not as I am now, but as I used to be.

Because I will remember you all

And look on with a smile.

Understand in your hearts

I've only gone to rest a little while.

Obituary

Jesse Earl Hutchins, affectionally known as "Hut" was born on May 10, 1944, in Emelle, Alabama to the late Cleophus and Hassie Hutchins. Jesse was one of eleven children born to this union. His brothers: Cleo (Retha) and Maurice preceded him in death. The Lord called Jesse home from this earthly life on December 25, 2020.

Jesse was a faithful member of Ebenezer Second Baptist Church for many years. He enjoyed singing in the Male Chorus and his role as Head Deacon of the Deacon Board. Jesse remained a dedicated member until his passing.

Jesse enjoyed singing gospel music, fishing, working in his garden, and visiting loved ones in Alabama. He worked for GM for many years and was a Master Carpenter.

Jesse and Virginia were married on June 26th and celebrated 49 years of marriage last year. This loving union produced two children: Jesse, Jr., who preceded him in death, and Stacey "Cat".

Jesse leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and faithful wife Virginia (Funderburg) Hutchins; his children: Stacey, and Tollie (Emily); five grandchildren: Thomas "Scootie", Tollie Earl, DaWaun, Tiante, and Te'Von; brothers: McArthur (Kitty) Hutchins, of Wisconsin, Esau Hutchins of Alabama, and Tollie (Louise) Hutchins of Ohio; sisters: Eloise Turner of Alabama, Hassie (Cleatreas) Pine of Georgia, Elzoria Bradley of Illinois, Lorene (Steve) Williams of Ohio, and Rhondia Gunn of Alabama; aunt Ruth Hill of Mississippi; and a host of other relatives and friends.
