

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, prayers, and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!

- The family of Patricia Ann Jones

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

Walker - Walnut Hills
2625 Gilbert Avenue
Cincinnati OH 45206

513-251-6200 www.HerbWalker.com

In Loving Memory of

Patricia Ann Jones

October 30, 1948 - February 4, 2025

Wednesday February 26, 2025

Visitation: 10:00 AM

Funeral Service: 11:00 AM

Walker - Walnut Hills

2625 Gilbert Avenue

Cincinnati, Ohio 45206

Apostle Ron Banks, Officiating

Obituary

Patricia Ann "Pat" Jones, born on October 30, 1948, in Cincinnati, Ohio, departed this world on February 4, 2025, in the city she loved and called home throughout her vibrant life. Pat was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, known for her infectious laugh, warm smile, and unwavering love for her family and friends.

Pat was the cherished daughter of the late JoAnn Jones Calhoun and Donald Barnes. She grew up in a lively household alongside her siblings, Lafawn Calhoun, Renee Perry, Jeneen (Stanley) West, Wanda (Jerry) Woofork, Darryl Calhoun, and Terry (Sherri) Calhoun. She carried the joy and closeness of her childhood throughout her life, sharing it with everyone she met.

A proud graduate of Withrow High School, Pat's thirst for knowledge and dedication to her community were evident early on. Her professional journey included service with several esteemed organizations, including the Internal Revenue Service, Shillito's, General Motors Corporation, MedMart, and Stein-mart. She ultimately retired from the Central Community Health Board, where she left a lasting impact through her tireless work and commitment to others.

Pat's life was a testament to her enduring spirit and zest for life. She never missed a chance to dance—whether at family gatherings or out with friends—her movements embodying the joy she found in every beat. Her passion for photography allowed her to document life's precious moments, leaving behind a treasure trove of memories for her loved ones to cherish.

Always ahead of the curve, Pat was fascinated by the latest gadgets, and her impeccable sense of style set her apart. Known for her trendy attire—always perfectly coordinated—she had a special fondness for her favorite color, purple. Shopping was more than a hobby for Pat; it was an expression of her vibrant personality and love for life.

Pat was a devoted mother to her daughter, Danielle Jones, and her sons, Dion and Donte Jones. She cherished her role as a grandmother to Darris (Nicole) Jones, Michael Jones Sr., Demetrius Jones, DeMarko Jones, Delilah Jones, Nakiya Jones, Khalil Jones, and Tay Tay Jones, and as a great-grandmother to Michael Jones Jr., De'Aira Jones, Amiyah Jones, De'Airris Jones, Majesty Jones, Royale Jones, Naveer Jones, and Messiah Jones. Her love for her family was boundless—she was their unwavering support, their guiding light, and the heart of their home.

In her community, Pat was known as someone who never met a stranger. She offered a helping hand or a word of encouragement whenever it was needed, embodying the words of Maya Angelou: "People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." Pat made everyone feel special, seen, and valued.

She was preceded in death by her mother, JoAnn Jones Calhoun; her father, Donald Barnes; her sister, Delexa Calhoun; and her brother, Michael Calhoun.

Pat leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and kindness. Her siblings, her beloved aunt Elaine Menifee, and a host of nieces, nephews, and dear friends will forever cherish the light she brought into their lives. Pat's memory will live on in the stories shared, the pictures treasured, and the many lives she touched.

A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered. Please join us in celebrating the life of Patricia Ann "Pat" Jones—a woman who danced through life with grace, captured moments with love, and laughed in a way that echoed in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be deeply missed, but her spirit will continue to inspire us every day.

Order of Service

Musical Prelude

Parting View Immediate Family

Prayer Darryl Calhoun

Scripture Darryl Calhoun

Selection

Acknowledgements Lafawn Calhoun

Remarks 2 Minutes Please

Obituary Read Silently

Selection

Eulogy Apostle Ron Banks

Benediction Apostle Ron Banks

Recessional Albert Goodwin

Pallbearers

| | |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| Donte Jones | Dion Jones |
| Darris Jones | Michael Jones Sr. |
| Demetrius Jones | Terry Calhoun |

Repast

Ilmaurii's Place
7617 Reading Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45237