Cricket was born Friday, April 24, 1987 in Lynn Lake, Manitoba to Shielah and Ivan Colomb. She lived in Pukatawagan all her life. Her first few years she lived with her parents and then at 5 years old she was raised by her kokum Caroline Colomb who she loved dearly.

In her teenage life she met her husband Tyrone Caribou in 2004 and later they were united in marriage on August 28, 2010.

Cricket was a beautiful, caring and loving wife, mother, daughter, daughter-in-law, sister, auntie, Godmother and friend.

Cricket worked at Sakastew School as an educational assistant for many years, then as a secretary which she enjoyed. She was so generous and always giving her quality time to help others. She loved to share her baked goods especially her banana bread.

Cricket's favorite times were watching old sitcoms with her husband, reading books to her babies and going for family outings to Mount Puk. She always loved to cook for her husband, babies, mother and father-in-law Ralph and Loretta.

Cricket passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, May 3, 2023, in her home at Pukatawagan, Manitoba, at the age of 36 years.
