

Revelation 1:8

"I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, said the Lord. Which is, and which is to come, the Almighty." Someday the King will return. He won't need to be elected there will be no debates. Every knee will bow, every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is King of Kings and Lord of Lords!

His Journey

Deacon Philip Authar Wilson, a beloved entrepreneur and a larger-than-life figure, was born on December 4, 1942, in the serene hills of Westmorland County, Virginia. He was the 5th child born to Mitchell and Rosie Wilson. Philip accepted Christ at an early age and joined Zion Baptist Church in Kinsale, VA. His journey through life brought him profound accomplishments, a loving family, and a legacy of success that will echo through generations.

Gifted in the realm of mathematics, Deacon Philip was affectionately dubbed "The Mathematician" by his family, showcasing his keen intellect by demonstrating complex problems for his classmates. This intellectual prowess, however, was merely one facet of his multifaceted personality. Among family and friends, he was legendary for his humor and the jokester who could lift spirits with a single quip. Deacon Philip had a unique ability to speak the truth candidly, shooting straight from the hip, which earned him both the admiration and respect of those around him. Above all, he was recognized as a devoted husband, father, and grandfather, always eager to share love and laughter.

As a businessman, Deacon Philip ventured into diverse territories, establishing both a trucking business and Phil and Syl's Catering Service, as well as a local gas station, each thriving through his hard work and unwavering commitment. The warm flavors of his culinary creations were more than just food; they were a means to bring people together, creating bonds over meals imbued with love. His success did not go unnoticed; both businesses flourished and have been passed down to the next generation, ensuring that his entrepreneurial spirit lives on.

Deacon Philip's life was rich with faith, as he dedicated himself to serving God, embodying the spirit of a loving man of God and serving as a deacon within his church community. He served at Christian Tabernacle as Chairman of the Deacon Board along with several other duties and Jericho City Of Praise under Apostle Betty Peebles as a Deacon and church caterer. He was currently a member of The Shepherd House International, under the leadership of Pastor R. Kevin Matthews. His active participation in the Kingdom demonstrated his deep-seated belief in the power of community and fellowship.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mitchell and Rosie Ann Wilson; in-laws, JoEllen, Jewel, Matthew, Nathan, Jr. and Jimmy; siblings, Elizabeth Clark and Mitchell Wilson, Jr.

Deacon Philip peacefully transitioned to eternal glory on January 20, 2025, in Clinton, Maryland. He is survived by his cherished wife, Sylvia Wilson; two sons, Phillip Arthur and Daniel Nation (Ashley), who carry forward his legacy of kindness and humor; grandchildren, Elijah Jamal "Elijee", Daniel Nation "Dan-Dan", Felisha Olivia "Wesha", Josiah Phillip "JoJo", Aliysha Renee "Missy", AAliyah Slyvia "Balliet", and Jayla Danielle "Jay Jay" were the pride of his life, and he lavished them with affection and wisdom. Philip also leaves behind a loving community of siblings, including Fannie, Howard (Annie), Charles (Gloria), Delores (Donald), James (Mamie), Sallie (Farley), Yvonne, Patty, Nadie, Britt, Ruth, Jonathan, and Mark, each of whom cherish his memory.
