

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Eloise Gore was born on November 30, 1947, to the loving parents of Renfro Fain Sr. and Mary Helen Fain. She was a cherished daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose presence brought love and warmth to those around her.

Throughout her life, Eloise created many meaningful memories with her family and touched the lives of everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She was a devoted mother to her son, Rayshaun Gore, and a loving grandmother to her grandsons, Raylon Gore and Cardier Shelton. Her love and care for her family will continue to live on through the generations she helped nurture.

Eloise was preceded in life by many cherished moments and leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and family devotion. She will be lovingly remembered by her son, Rayshaun Gore; grandsons, Raylon Gore and Cardier Shelton; brother, Renfro Fain Jr.; nephews, Kenneth Fain and Terrance Fain; along with extended family and friends who will continue to honor her memory.

On June 9, 2026, Eloise Gore peacefully departed this life. Though she will be deeply missed, her memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved her.

May her life, love, and legacy continue to bring comfort to all who knew and loved her.

I'm Free

I am free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play

And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full I've savored much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... He set me free.
