

Lord I can't Wait

Lord I've lived a good life,
I was baptized into Christ,
Humbling myself so diligently,
But Lord I can't wait,
To get in Heaven.
Just knowing that you'll be there,
No more crying, no more dying,
we'll have to bear
Just love and joy everywhere,
Children singing, bell's ringing,
Doves flying through the air,
The Angels are gathering far beyond compare,
Smiling faces, holy places sun shining with a glow,
I see familiar faces I know,
Sparkling water running from shore to shore,
Some how I feel I've been here once before,
Tasting from the tree of life,
Eating its fruit which is fresh and ripe
From the first day you turned my life around
I knew I was Heaven bound
Lord I can't wait to get in heaven
Just knowing you'll be there.

Obituary

Audrey Delores Mitchell was born on November 17, 1949, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Jerome and Maggie Mitchell in Cincinnati, OH. The Lord JESUS Christ took Audrey by the hand and laid her to rest in his bosom during the early morning of July 13, 2026.

Audrey started life on Oliver St., then spent the rest of her growing up in Evanston on Holloway in the family house, meaning parents, sister, aunts, uncles, and many cousins. Audrey graduated in the class of '67; she loved singing and had a beautiful voice. Audrey grew up in church; although she didn't attend much as an adult, she had a relationship with the Lord.

Audrey Delores Mitchell, as we all know, was a "Fiery Woman" with a slick, sharp tongue and used it quite often. Audrey was a member of the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Millennium Club. She loved dancing, skating, cooking, the casino, playing cards, and hosting family functions. Audrey's Birthday Parties were something exciting to witness. (If you know, you know) She would get up and move to a different state in a heartbeat, but she always came back home.

Audrey was preceded in death by her brother Michael Jerome Mitchell, who passed away shortly after birth; her only child, Michael Mitchell; her ex-husband, Donald Cook; and her late husband, Richard Figgs.

Audrey leaves behind her only sister, Linda C. Mitchell, and two grandchildren, Maiya Joycelynn and Michael Jerome III. Nieces and nephews: Cynthia- Brittney, Dominique, Linda, Jasmine, Anita- (Sean, Cameron) LeRoy (Barbah) Aaron, Emma, Khamonie, Shakeem, Khalonie, Elijah, Wendy (Lucius) Stanley Sr., Bre'nee, Wyna'e. Also, many loving, caring family members and friends, especially Audrey's best friend for over 50 years, Aunt Pint - Margaret Trollinger.

I would like to thank everyone who visited with Audrey either in person or called by phone; it meant so much to her.

Remember Audrey Delores Mitchell as the person you knew her as. She will be truly missed.
