

Thank you for being my big sister. Travel down the road and back again. Your heart is true, you're a pal and a confidant. And if you threw a party, invited everyone you knew. You would see the biggest gifts would be from me and the card attached would say thank you for being my sister. I will always love you to the moon and beyond

From your little sister Rosemary (Rose)

I thank God For the time he gave me
To share your amazing with and special love We had together

To My Dearest Sister

I am so grateful to have you in my life, you are not just my sister, but also my best friend. You have loved me unconditionally and have stood by me through thick and thin.

You have shared my joys and sorrows, my laughter and my tears. You have been my inspiration as we grew up together as we grew up together. When we were little children, we would laugh and play together. As we grew older you stood by me through good and stormy weather.

There is something special about our bond. It is more than just family. God has placed a deep love for you in my heart.

From your Big Little brother Jerry (Jig)

Obituary

Ruth (Boo) Marcella Weaver was born on January 24, 1968, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Ruth Ann Stone and Charles William Weaver Sr. Ruth lost her battle to cancer and departed this life on Friday, July 10, 2025.

Ruth was a sister, an aunt, cousins, and a friend to many. She was a loving and caring person who loved her family. Ruth loved getting and spending time with her girls (nieces). Ruth accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her savior at an early age and again later in life. She attended Hughes High School and was employed with ABM Industries for many years.

Ruth was preceded in death by her mother Ruth Ann Stone, father Charles Weaver Sr. 2 nephews Charles Bishop Sr., and Jerry Weaver Jr., a great nephew Charles Bishop Jr., and a sister Juanita Williams.

Ruth leaves to cherish memory: a mother-in-law Olivia Thomas-Carter, father -in-law Thomas Jamison, husband Harold Taylor, 6 brothers: Charles Weaver, Jerry (Sandy) Weaver, Charles Weaver III, Gregory Foster, Joseph (Latascha) Williams, a special little brother Tony (Hey) Richardson, and brother-in-law Thomas Taylor, 3 sisters: Rosemary (Michael) Weaver, Sheila (Dewayne) Williams, and Cornella (DeAndre) Dale, 2 uncles: Mark (Joann) Cosby, Wayne Weaver; 2 aunts: Alberta (Doug) Brooks and Diane (Gary) Conners; 3 nephews: Mark Bishop, Johnell McKinney, and Jervell Weaver; 3 nieces: DaWanna Bishop, Tiera Warner, and Jerica Weaver, 26 great-nieces and nephews; 3 great-great nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and friends.

Did you see that butterfly,
the one that's just flown by?
Yes, well that was me I was just trying to say hi.

The robin in the garden,
yes of course that was me too.

I just wanted you to notice that I'm still right here with you.

The feather that you found the white one on the floor.

Yes, that was me just giving you the sign I know you've been looking for.

Because I'll never leave you,
even though heave feels quite far,

No matter where you go in life
I'll always be wherever you are.

Our song that comes on the radio,
a feather, a bird, a butterfly.

Remember that is a sign from me whenever you question why.

Even when you feel alone,
know you're not I am here.

You carry our love within every single tear.

So please know that I am with you,
I wish I could take away your pain.

But the love we shared is always around and it will always remain.
