

In Loving Memory

Arnold Randolph Mayo

05/14/1946 - 01/13/2024

Saturday 01/27/2024 We gather

this day to send him home with love.

Arnold Randolph Mayo was born on May 14, 1946 to the late James and Catherine Mayo. They lived in Coastville Pa until he was twelve years old. The Family then moved to 21st and Norris Street in Philadelphia Pa where he, his brothers and Sister grew up. He came up in the Philadelphia public school system. He worked alongside his brother Johnny at Pisces Beauty & Barbershop for many years. Later in his life he became A commercial building custodian supervisor.

Arnold was loved by many and there was always a smile on his face no matter the circumstances. He really loved sports particularly the Philadelphia teams. He loved to watch tv. His favorite show was the original Star Trek, and his favorite movie was Star Trek II The Wrath of Khan
