Following a long and hard battle with cancer, Alan Legge passed away peacefully on Wednesday, March 1, 2023 at St. Anthony's Hospital in The Pas, Manitoba with his wife Chantal Charbonneau and son Andrew Legge by his side, holding his hand.

Alan was 63 years old. He was born on Thursday, July 2, 1959, in Blomodin Nova Scotia, to his parents Theresa Currie and Erlyn Legge.

With two sisters, Betty Lou and Sandra and two brothers Ken and John, Alan was the youngest of 5 siblings.

Alan was a proud father to his sons Ryan Legge (Emily) and Andrew Legge and stepsons Christopher Charbonneau and Mathew Charbonneau and adopted daughter, Jennifer Legge.

He was also an uncle to Jeff Legge (Luella) and Jay Legge. Payton Legge and Colleen.

Alan is also a grandfather to his grandson Kaleb Courtney (Jacci) and Georgia Legge and Juniper Legge (Emily), whom he loved with all his heart.

When Alan first moved to The Pas, he bought a house and started work at Kobar's. He then moved to Beaver Lumber, and from there he worked at the SAAN store as manager. After that he was offered a position at Northern Building Supply and through hard work and dedication went on to become General Manager for 12 years. He took pride in his hard work and helping all his customers and did that until sadly, he became ill.

He loved hockey and was a Montreal Canadians fan since he was 5 years old. He had a great sense of humor and loved hunting and fishing.

He always tried to make people smile and laugh. Alan will be missed by everyone he knew. He always put everyone ahead of himself and had a heart of gold.

Alan met his wife Chantal on July 1, 1999. One year after a long-distance relationship, she moved from Ottawa on June 20, 2000, with her 2 children, and they began their beautiful life together that they enjoyed and cherished for 23 of the most amazing years.

Alan was predeceased by his parents Theresa Currie and Erlyn Legge. Also, his sister, Betty Lou.

Left to mourn are his wife Chantal; their children, Ryan Legge (Emily) and Andrew Legge and stepsons Christopher Charbonneau and Mathew Charbonneau and adopted daughter, Jennifer Legge. His grandchildren, Kaleb Courtney, Georgia Legge and Juniper Legge; nieces and nephews; brothers Ken (Ann Marie), John; and his sister Sandra; and a number of his friends.

Alan will be remembered by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, but most of all by his loving wife Chantal, their children, grandchildren, family and friends. Until we meet again.
