23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Emory Alnelius Smith's body was not made for this earth get his spirit will always be with us he was the most beautiful of souls enduring so much so innocently.

Emory was born on October 29, 1991, to parents Regina Ann Smith and Alfred Lewis Smith in Cincinnati Ohio. Emory is the youngest of their three sons. From birth Emory faced many medical complications for which the doctors projected his lifespan to be short. Initially the doctors said he would not live past age 2. Emory was resilient and determined to beat the odds. Proving the doctors wrong he began his education and Bobby Fairfax where he began talking at 3 1/2 and walking at age 4. After Preschool he attended Taft Elementary then went on to continue grades first through eighth at Roberts Elementary School. Despite his mother's fears she allowed him to live out his dreams. After many test and consultations with many Physicians Emory began playing football. He played for Robert's from grades 7th-8th and continued at Elder High School for grades 9th and 10th. At some point Emory's body endured all the pain he could take, and he was forced to discontinue playing football. Emory continued being a bright academic student with a B average at Elder High School. He excelled in the Cincinnati Artworks program. After graduating elder in 2011, Emory furthered his education attending two years at UC DAAP program and two years at Cincinnati State for Business and Accounting. In the summer of 2013 while still at Cincinnati State he met the love of his life, his soulmate Madison Key. These two are inseparable for the next 11 years. The love they share is one that most people dream of. She was the Ying to his Yang for them to have been such a young couple the spirit and love they shared was a once in a lifetime kind of love. Even though they were not blessed with children of their own. They were the best aunt and uncle/godparents to Alfred and Jamarion. Parents to their surviving for babies Middie and Choji. Over the years Emory held many professions from being a game room attendant at Cincinnati State, Cook, Line Picker, cashier, to a slot attendant and Card dealer; at Horseshoe, Jack's, and Hard Rock Casino. Emory spent the bulk of his career working for the casino in Downtown Cincinnati. Dedicating his time at the casino for over eight years.

Outside of work Emory a.k.a. Nuke enjoyed various hobbies. Such As tattooing, painting, drawing, gaming, shooting, graphic design, and animation. Specializing in custom creations from T-shirts, Logos, business cards etc. Emory was truly a Jack of all trades. Emory's heart was giving, non-judgmental, and genuine. Emory was such a great man. He had no enemies as it was impossible to be angry with him. Emory's spirit and light radiated through everything he did and touched.

Surviving Emory are his mother Regina Smith and godfather Felton Brown. His wife Madison and their Fur babies Midnight and Choji. His siblings Alfred L. Pitts, Cornelius (Angela) Pitts. God-brothers James Gun and Jacob Key. His sister Lynette Wright. His nephews Alfred, Jamarion, Joseph, Da'Fonta, and Demarcos. Great nephews Santana and Da'fonta Jr. His nieces Notta, Leilani, Dyana, Angela and Nalanuh. His great nieces Marshiya, De'Yira, and Damyla. His uncles Troy, Wyatt, Anthony, Greg and La'Roy. His Aunts Diane, Debra, Mamie, Tosha, Angie, Marsha, Janet and Joann. Now that Emory has Gained his wings he is reunited with his father Alfred Lewis Smith and his Grandmother Delores Pitts as well as several other friends and family members.

What an honor to have witnessed the life and death of such a beautiful soul, too wonderful for this world. Rest in peace Emory. Your love, wisdom, and light will forever shine in our hearts. Nuke you will NEVER BE FORGOTTEN!
