Dedicated to a Beloved Sister

I thank my God for the gift of you—
A woman of courage, noble and true.
Outstanding in all of your strength and your grace,
Bringing such warmth to the darkest of place.
To so many, a mother, a shelter, a guide,
With a wisdom and boldness you never would hide.
You carry a heart that is tender and deep,
Giving your best for the promises you keep.
You would offer the very shirt off your back,
To make sure that the people you love never lack.
I remember the days when my car wouldn't run,
Or my card was declined, and the worries begun—
Without hesitation, you stepped in to stay,
Turning your kindness from words into way.
I have seen your own tears as they fell to the ground,
Yet a quiet, sweet grace was the shield you had found.
Though sickness and sorrow, through hurt and through pain,
You still reach comfort repeatedly.
Even in seasons you needed cheer too,
You poured out your spirit to see others through.
You taught me that strength isn't missing the fight,
But trusting in God through the dark and the light.
Your faith is my anchor, your kindness my peace,
A beautiful blessing that never will cease.
Today, I thank God for the life that you lead,
For every sweet prayer and each generous deed.
I pray that He strengthens and keeps you today,
Showering blessings in your sweet way.
May the love and the grace you so selflessly spend,
Return to you double, with joy without end.
I am grateful for every sweet memory we share,
And the privilege of calling you my sister, so rare.

Expression of Gratitude

We, the family of the late Betty Mays, would like to express our love and sincere appreciation for your prayers, visits, and many acts of kindness shown to us during this time. May God bless you all for being a blessing to our family.

Reflections of Her Life

Betty "Sister" Mays, 76, of Hopkins, South Carolina, peacefully entered into eternal rest on Sunday, July 12, 2026. Born on February 13, 1950, she was the beloved and cherished daughter of the late Earnest and Janie Jones Randolph.

Betty was educated in the public schools of Richland County and was a proud graduate of Hopkins High School. Seeking to further her education, she attended Columbia Commercial College, where she successfully obtained an associate degree, laying out the foundation for a life marked by diligence, intellect, and grace.

A woman of profound and unwavering faith, Betty dedicated her life to the service of the Lord. She was a proud and active member of Word of Truth Ministry and Worship Center, where her presence was a constant source of light. Throughout her years of ministry, she served faithfully as a teacher, sharing spiritual wisdom with others, and lifted her beautiful voice in song as a member of the Praise and Worship Team. Her deep commitment to prayer shone through her work as an intercessor, and she kept the house of God in order by serving diligently as the church clerk.

Betty was blessed with a beautiful, close-knit, and awesome family, who were the absolute joy of her life. She was a devoted daughter, mother, sister, and friend whose unconditional love and warm spirit anchored those around her. Her legacy of faith, kindness, and devotion will live in the hearts of her beloved family, her church congregation, and the many friends who were blessed to cross her path.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Calvin Mays; her son, Kevin T. Mays; and her brother, David Randolph.

She is survived and lovingly remembered by her daughter, Twanda Mays; her sons, Calvin (Comilla) Mays and stepson Carlton Williams; her brother, Earnest Randolph, Jr.; and her sisters, Ann Randolph and Virginia (John) Marsh. Her legacy of faith and love also lives on through her adored grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives, her church congregation, and many dear friends who were blessed to cross her path.

"Well done, good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." — Matthew 25:21
