

Obituary

Madriano was born September 17th, 1970, the second oldest in a family of seven, to Mihsa and Matuit Saick in the Federated States of Micronesia.

Growing up, he was very intelligent, he even taught at a local school back in Pohnpei. He graduated from the University of FSM with his associates degree. Alongside his love for education, his love for God was very bountiful.

In 1996, he and a few friends/relatives decided to leave Micronesia and head to the states in search for work. He ended up in Texas, where he first spotted his "soon-to-be" wife, Jersihna Andonio Dadius. They relocated to Ohio where he found employment at a nursing home.

Madriano and Jersihna were blessed with five children together, four daughters, Debra, Trucella, Tamara and Malaya and one son Josiah. One year after the birth of their son, on July 26th, 2014 they were finally united in holy matrimony and thus their life was set.

Madriano was honest and caring individual, which is why his occupation really suited him. His job responsibilities included having to take care of the elderly by any means possible. In fact, his caring nature had always been very visible even in the stories of how he and his betrothed met. He barely knew her yet he paid for a place for her to stay. His caring nature flourished as he and his wife had their children. He did anything and everything for them and asked for nothing in return. He drove everyone where they needed to be, he balanced his schedule according to everyone else's; he sacrificed his time and his sleep for their needs. He was truly a very selfless man. He was the backbone of his family. He passed away,

Madriano Matuit Saick, a loving husband, father and friend passed away while being the selfless, caring man he was at the Indian Spring Nursing Home during the last hour of his shift around 6am in the morning on November 15th, 2018.

Madriano leaves his precious memories to be cherished by: his loving wife, Jersihna; four daughters, Debra, Trucella, Tamara and Malaya; one son, Josiah; one sister, Sayako Saick; three brothers, Moses, Joseph and Saiky Saick, a host of other relatives and friends.

The Saick Family

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepareth a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
