A Beautiful Life, A Lasting Legacy
Sis. DiAnn McQuirter Young

Mrs. DiAnn McQuirter Young was born on September 2, 1954, in Madisonville, Texas, to Kit and Fete Johnson McQuirter. She was a proud mother, grandmother, sister, and friend who enjoyed bringing people together. With a love for event planning, sewing, and entertaining, DiAnn used her creativity to make gatherings special and create meaningful moments with family and friends.

DiAnn dedicated many years of service as a school bus driver with Beaumont Independent School District and Huntsville Independent School District. Through this work, she served children and families in her community, becoming a part of their daily lives. Her commitment to her work and her love for connecting with others were meaningful parts of the life she built.

On March 2, 1973, she married the love of her life, Hubert Young, Jr., and had three children from this union. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Lee E. Young (Kimberly) and Tesha Young (Quentin Roy). Her legacy continues through her grandchildren, Kimberly Phillips, Kendall Young, Kamri Coleman (J'Kandione), Jhamira Allen, Julian Allen, Nicholas Young, and My'Quaeshia Roy (Javontaé Cohen), along with her great-grandchildren, Leyvonna Coleman, Xayda Allen, Leyloni Coleman, Keyontré Coleman, and Selah Cohen. She is also survived by her siblings, Billy Don Lee, Frank York, John Quincy McQuirter, Dorothy Henry (Lovell), and Margaret Jones, as well as extended family members and dear friends.

DiAnn was preceded in death by her parents, Kit and Fete Johnson McQuirter; husband, Hubert Young, Jr.; daughter, Kimberly F. Young; her siblings, Lizzie Young, Al Vernon McQuirter, Anthony McQuirter, and Callen Thomas; and her infant son, George Lee. Although her passing leaves a space that cannot be filled, her memory will live on through the family she loved and the many lives she touched. The moments shared with her will remain a treasured part of her family's story, and she will be remembered with love for generations to come.
