FINAL VIEWING

Her laughter filled the room,
Bright, bold, and full of cheer;
A sound that lingered lovingly
Long after she wasn't near.

Her smile could shift the atmosphere,
Her presence made life sweet;
And even when she wanted space,
Her sass was pure and complete.

We'll miss her honest ways,
The moments she made us grin;
For a heart as true as "Little Sister's"
Leaves love that never ends.

Though she has gone before us,
Her joy remains our guide,
A precious light we'll carry
Forever by our side.

Obituary

Louise Estelle Barham, affectionately known as “Little Sister” by family and friends, departed this life on November 24, 2025, at Diversicare Nursing Home. Louise was born in Union City, Tennessee, to the late Alma Louise Bass Barham and the late Robert Barham. She was the beloved granddaughter of the late Luella Bass of Union City and the late Eleonora and Albert Atkins of Fulton, Kentucky.

Louise moved to South Bend, Indiana, at an early age. She later returned to East Tennessee to live with her father and her bonus mother, Mary. After a few years, she relocated to Greenville, Tennessee, where she lived and worked faithfully until her health began to decline. In 2019, she moved to Martin, Tennessee, where she remained until her passing.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Larry King.

Louise is survived by four brothers: Lee Vern (Mamie) Turner of Nashville, TN; William “Bill” Barham of Indianapolis, IN; James Barham of Muncie, IN; Sonny Barham of California, and Brandon Barham of Memphis, TN. She also leaves two sisters: Brittany Barham of Union City, TN, and Deborah (Dannie) Smith of Union City, TN. She is remembered with love by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family. A special nephew, Pastor Darryl Turner, held a significant place in her heart.

Louise will be deeply missed for her unmistakable loud laughter, her joyful expressions of happiness, and her three favorite words she boldly shouted whenever she didn’t want to be bothered, words that those close to her will never forget. Her life was uniquely lived, honestly expressed, and fully felt by those who knew and loved her.
