IN LOVING MEMORY OF KATHRYN COBB

We, the Cobb family, are forever grateful for the love and support shown to us during this difficult time. As we mourn the loss of our beloved queen, Kathryn Cobb Washington, we find solace in the outpouring of care and compassion we have received.

Your prayers, messages, and acts of kindness have touched our hearts deeply. Through this collective embrace, we have found strength and comfort in knowing that we are not alone in our grief.

Kathryn was the pillar of our family, and her presence will be profoundly missed. Yet, we take solace in the memories we shared and the love she bestowed upon us. Her legacy will forever live on in our hearts.

*With heartfelt appreciation,
The Cobb Family*

REMEMBERING Kathy

Order Of Service

Kathryn Cobb (77) on November 1, 2024, was called home to rest in God's loving arms. Kathryn was born in Greenville, FL on November 15, 1946, to David Cobb Sr, and Willie Mae Cobb. She graduated from Greenville High School where most of her brothers and sisters also attended, and she met her beloved husband, Jerry Washington whom she reconnected back with later in life.

Kathryn, better known as Kathy to close friends and family, was a passionate entrepreneur and had a remarkable ability to overcome any obstacle and achieve her objectives. It was mesmerizing to observe her unwavering resolve to never quit. After relocating to Detroit, MI, and working at the VA for 15 years, she decided to take steps, to dominate her own businesses. Kathy was sweet and petite, but don't let her size fool you, she was a force to be reckoned with!

Although Kathy never had any biological children, she was blessed to have many godchildren, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, and even a few great-great nieces and nephews. She was loved by many, and her kindness resonated throughout her beautiful life.

Kathy will forever be remembered by her coined terms, "tell me ya business", "put it before God" and "Love ya, love ya, love ya"! There probably isn't one person, she's met, where she didn't tell them, "She loved them".

Looking back now, Kathryn was always breaking barriers, uplifting spirits, and being the magical and awe-inspiring person God created her to be. She was always determined to complete her goals and exceed expectations, while simultaneously imparting her knowledge to enrich the lives of those she loved. Tenacity, she was born with it; but she also was loyal, observant, and grounded in faith.

Preceding her in death - her husband Jerry Washington and siblings; Clarence, Gladys, David, Inez, Eugene, Eugene Lewis and Alfreda. She is survived by her sisters; Anne (Chris), Joyce (Brian) and Gloria (Albert); her brother Howard and a host of nieces, nephews, godchildren, other relatives and friends.

Sentiments

T, London and I love you so much, It has been such a pleasure having a bonus grandmother. You have had such a big influence on London, teaching her how to be kind, caring and generous we're gonna miss you so much.
Love ya, love ya, love ya!!
-Tiffany and London

My heart is so heavy. Auntie Kathy wasn't just an aunt to me, she was a second mom. This lady taught me so much, especially about being a strong black business woman. I will remember all the laughs, and words of encouragement you have given me over the years. I love you always!

Lisa

To my beautiful sister Kathy, who took me under her wings, when she lived in Detroit. After graduating from high school in Greenville, FL., I moved in with Kathy. She taught me about life in the big city. She was my confident, my friend, and one I looked up to. She played an important part in my children and my life. If I would have known, that she would be called by God the last time I saw her last week, I would have held on to her a little tighter and longer. I would have let her know, how much she meant to me, and how much I loved her. I know she loved me, as much as I loved her.

Keep dancing with the stars next to Jesus. Rest in peace, my sweet sister

Love Joyce

To my precious jewel, I will miss you! You always stuck with me and were by my side. No matter what was going on, I knew I could count on you.
Love you, your baby brother Howard!

To my baby sister, I can't believe you left me. Words can't describe how much you meant to me. We were twins, even though I'm the big sister! You are my very best friend, and I don't know what I am going to do without you. Thank you for being my other half in life, until we meet again in the clouds.
Love you always, big sister Anne

To my beloved sister Kathryn, you will be truly missed. I will miss your phone calls and your voice calling my name. Heaven has definitely gained an angel, you were so loving. You didn't just talk about loving one another, you showed it every chance you got. I can just hear your voice saying, "I love you my sister". You had so many phrases that became very popular with the entire family. We will continue to keep them alive in our hearts and within our homes. You made us laugh, gave the best advice, and you were definitely one of a kind. We love you, take your rest, until we meet again.

Love you always,
your sister, Gloria
