

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies Flashed scenes from my life.

In each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine and one was the Lord's. When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and to my surprise, I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life. I asked the Lord about it.

"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I needed you most."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I LOVE YOU and would never leave you. During the times of trial and suffering, where you see only one set of footprints,

It was then that I carried you."

Carol Ann (Seehafer) Aden was born on April 11, 1933, in Corona, SD. She was the daughter of Erwin and Clara (Tietjen) Seehafer. Carol attended rural schools and graduated from Corona High School in 1951 where she enjoyed being a basketball cheerleader. She was united in marriage with Glenn "Bud" Aden on September 27, 1952, in the parsonage of Christ Lutheran Church, north of Corona.

Carol and Bud farmed together in Vernon Township for 16 years. In 1969, they moved to the Aden family farm in Grant Center Township. In 1994, Bud passed away and Carol moved into Milbank.

She was a faithful member of American Lutheran Church and later, Living Word Lutheran Church. She enjoyed volunteering with her baked goods at the church and working on the bulletin weekly. She was happy to be wherever needed! She enjoyed spending time doing yard work. She loved to watch sporting events, especially high school girls basketball with her good friend, Frances Beachem. For many years, Carol worked with her sisters-in-law painting and staining woodwork for many families in the area.

Left to cherish her memory are her brother-in-law, Darreld Aden; sister-in-law, Lorretta Meister; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Erwin and Clara; husband, Bud; one sister, Dolores Johnson; brothers: James Seehafer and infant brother, Harvey; Godchild, Wayne Aden; and many other relatives.
