The Obituary

Mr. Arnold Ligon, was born on June 12 1941 in a small town called Rustaville, Kentucky to the parents of Ben Ligon and Addie Bell Ligon. He departed this life on November 20, 2009. When Mr. Arnold was a young man he then married a nice young lady name Ophelia Ligon, they had three children two boys and one girl.

In 1989 Mr. Ligon then fell in love with a woman name, Verlene Mapp from Atlanta, GA., but lived in Cincinnati Ohio where they began to make a life with each other. He lived a good wonderful life with the ups and downs, but God made a way for him to stay strong and to keep living on.

Arnold Ligon was called home to rest in peace with his mother Addie Bell Ligon, and father Ben Ligon.

Arnold Ligon leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, Arnold Ligon Jr., Tony Ligon; daughter, Shalonda Ligon; also step children with Verlene Mapp; Regina Mapp, Virginia Mapp, Linda Mapp (Kenneth Todd), Gary Mapp, Gregory Mapp (Keshia White), Cathrein McMillan, and a host of grand children, family and friends who loved him very much.

God's Will

Not by choice but by God's Will. We've been left with memories that will only fill A part of us that's left behind. Like dust in the wind and soon to find, That although we have faith, the day has come. That this dream is real and we're no longer numb. The presence of what I know in my heart. Will keep us together, never to part. Your smile has graced us to no end. A time for all of us to begin laughing, loving, and caring for each. We no longer search, it's within our reach. You have blessed us all with something we lack. We will learn from you and always look back. God's Will has left us with a part of you. That will grace each day with a morning dew. To wake up to butterflies fluttering about. And the knowledge that we are not without. Your smile, your laughter, your love, your appeal, This, my dear, must be God's Will.

Love Your Daughter,

Regina Mapp

Repast

The family will receive friends and family at Findlay Street neighborhood house from 2-3:30 immediately following the interment.

“Let not your heart be trouble; Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; That where I am, there ye may be also.”

St. John 14 1-3
