Life Reflections

Shariah Sharelle Bradley was born November 3, 2004 in Columbia, SC to Sharelle Aquino and the late Sam Bradley III. She departed this earthly life on August 17, 2026 in Orangeburg, South Carolina. She was known for her beautiful smile, kind heart and gentle, loving spirit.

She was educated in the public schools of Sumter County and was a graduate of Lakewood High 2023. Shariah was enrolled at Lakewood High School and received many academic certificates. She loved shopping, traveling, dancing, and spending time with her siblings. Family was the center of her happiest moments.

Shariah was employed with Continental Tire Plant in Sumter and was a hardworking and dedicated employee who was loved and respected by her co-workers. She was previously employed at the Volvo Plant in Ridgeville, SC.

Shariah shared a beautiful love with Ahmad Zy'Keyus Islar. Two beautiful souls; young, full of life and deeply in love, traveling, sharing dreams, laughter and countless memories. They were truly meant to be and will be deeply missed.

Shariah leaves to cherish precious memories, her mother, Sharelle Aquino (Wilson Aquino); two sisters: Shadaria and Sai'Yanah; two brothers: Dontre Bradley and Monty Bradley of Sumter, SC; grandparents: Annette and Glenn Pitts, Sam and Daisy Bradley; great grandmother, Rev. Lue Pitts Conyers, Sarah Wright; special cousins: Mo'Anna Singleton, Serenity Martin, Nick Martin; special friends, Alanna Coltrain, Encyee McCray, Deviona Miller; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Sam Bradley, III (Rilo); two brothers: Sam Raekwon Bradley and Malakhi Noah Aquino; maternal great grandparents: Doretia T. Porter, David Conyers; paternal great grandparents: Rosa Lee Bradley, Jerry Wright.
