Reflections

Whitney Daejon Hendrix, lovingly known as Daejon, was born on September 7, 2006, at Jackson Purchase Hospital to Whitney Hendrix and Racquel Hendrix. On October 26, 2025 at the age of 19, he completed his earthly assignment and entered eternal rest. Though his time here was brief, the joy, love and light he carried will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew him.

Daejon carried himself with a gentle grace. He was polite, respectful, and always smiling, the kind of smile that could dissolve tension and soften even the hardest day. He paid attention to people in a way that made them feel seen, understood, and valued. To be in his presence was to feel welcome. Family and friends were the center of his world. He cherished quality moments, talks, riding around town, hugging on everyone, laughing with his friends and simply being close to the people he loved. His humor came naturally, a quick wit and easy laugh that filled rooms and made ordinary days unforgettable. If you were around him, you felt lighter.

Daejon attended Fulton County School. He graduated from FCHS in 2024 and continued his education at Murray State as a Sophomore. Not only was he a scholar, he was a hard worker and dedicated employee of Hubs, Zaxby's, and Walmart. A young man of faith, Daejon was a member of Turning Point Ministries, where he sang with the youth choir and briefly served on the usher board. He was a mentor to many of his peers and younger youth, leading not through words alone, but through how he lived steady, humble and kind.

Daejon leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Racquel Hendrix and his Father Whitney Hendrix: one brother; Braylan Hendrix and three sisters; Camille Hendrix, Taylan Hendrix (Hickman, KY), and Ja'Quasia Hendrix (Union City, TN). In addition to his siblings, five grandparents; Michael and Tonya McClure (Hickman, KY), Jamie Bogan (Nashville, TN), Mark and L'Tonya Harris (Hickman, KY), four great-grandparents; Bruce & Betty Ruth Elam, PJ Newberry and Mary Helen Marney, two godparents; Destinee Ivory and Kendrick Couch, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Daejon was preceded in death by his great-grandparents; Richard and Lizzie Hendrix and grandfather; Doyle Thompson and Elizabeth Newberry and great-great-great grandmother; Betty B. Pierce

Love Notes

TRIBUTE FROM MOMMY & DADDY

My beautiful firstborn, from the moment you entered this world, you changed mine forever. You taught me what unconditional love truly means. Your smile could light up any room; it had a way of softening hearts and lifting spirits, even on the hardest days. That smile, it wasn't just seen, it was felt. You were kind, polite, and always so respectful, a true gentleman in every sense. You carried yourself with grace and goodness beyond your years, and everyone who met you could see the love that lived in you. You had a heart that cared deeply, a soul that radiated warmth, and a presence that made people feel safe and loved. I will forever remember your laughter, your gentle words, and the way you made me so proud to be your parent. Though your time here was far too short, your impact will last forever. You've left a mark on this world, and on every heart you touched, that nothing and no one can ever erase. I will miss your voice, your hugs, and your smile most of all. But I will carry you with me, every single day in every breath, in every prayer, in every beat of my heart. Rest peacefully, my teddy bear. You will always be my firstborn, my pride, my joy, my forever love.

TRIBUTE FROM SIBLINGS

Brother,

You gave no one a last farewell, nor ever said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. A million times we will miss you, a million times we will cry. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life we love you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place, no one else can fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home. We will meet again someday I know in a better place, I thank God he made you our brother while you were here on earth.

Camille, Braylan, Taylan, & Ja'Quasia

TRIBUTE FROM GRANDPARENTS

To our loving, caring and gentle grandson. You were our first grandchild and we do and will miss you until we see you again.
Love you our Big Baby!!
Love, Granny and Popa

Dae, Our love for you transcends all space and time. I thank GOD for allowing us these 19 years to love and laugh; and especially these last 4 as you maneuvered into manhood. We love you and our lives are better because of you. Until we meet again,
Granny and Granddaddy Harris

TRIBUTE FROM AUNTS/UNCLES

To our handsome nephew, though your time here was way too short your presence left and everlasting mark on our hearts. We will carry you with us in every moment, every prayer and every breath. Heaven may hold you in its embrace, but we hold you in our souls. Until the day that we meet again may angels keep you safe, you are forever cherished, forever missed and forever loved.

Love Uncle Bo, Keke, Auntie Esha, TT Birdie, Uncle Jarvis, and Uncle Jamie

Forever

IN OUR HEARTS

In Loving Memory of my son

Something will remind me
I never know just when
It might be something someone says
and it all comes back again
The times we spent together
The happiness, the fun
Once again I feel the pain
Of life without My Son
It's said that time is a healer
I'm not sure if this is true
There's not a day that goes by Son
That I don't cry for you.

Gone to Soon

Words cannot describe the loss I feel
Saying farewell to you,
But heaven chose to give you wings
And now it's time you flew.
I wish that we could have more time,
That God had let you stay.
Forever would not be long enough
But I would take one day.
I wish I had just one more chance
To see that tender smile,
To laugh with you again my dear
Just for a little while.
Gone too soon, but not forgotten,
Forever you will remain,
My guiding light, my shining star,
until I see your face again.

YOUTH & LEGACY

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.

1 Timothy 4:12 NIV
