

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul,
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies,
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Kellogg Bruce Ashton Jr., 87, of Neptune, New Jersey passed away Saturday, November 14, 2015, in Neptune Rehabilitation and Care Center, Neptune City, New Jersey. He was born on March 23, 1928 in Monmouth County, New Jersey to Kellogg Ashton Sr. and Bertha May White.

"Bruce" was employed as a maintenance supervisor for Marlboro Township Board of Education before retiring in 1993. He was a long time member of a Radio Controlled Model Airplane Club, and served in the Army during WW II. He was a lifelong resident of Neptune, New Jersey. Bruce married Lillian Johnson, also of Neptune, in 1960. They were married for 55 years.

He is survived by his daughter, Karen Ashton; sister, Lenora Coy; nephews, Robert Ashton, and Harold Wyatt; nieces, Brenda Ashton Ingram, Barbara Miles, Wendy Galloway, and Linda Simpson; grandsons, Charles Johnson IV, and Jamie Johnson; and three great grandchildren.

Many thanks to family and friends who are here today in remembrance of the life of a special man, who will always live forever in our hearts.

Lovingly Submitted

The Family of

Kellogg Bruce Ashton Jr.
