

The Family Man

*The woods and streams were dear to him,
The harvest and the game.
But dearest still, his family,
His heart, his proudest claim.*

*He cheered his Sooners faithfully,
He worked with steady hands.
Yet nothing matched the joy he found
In those who called him dad.*

*Though earthly ties are broken now,
His love will never cease.
For God has welcomed him above,
To everlasting peace.*
