

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go!

Life Reflections

Felicia Denise Taylor was born June 9, 1977 to Janie Ruth Taylor and Willie Fortune Sr. in Sumter South Carolina. She departed this life on February 18, 2026 in Columbia, SC.

Felicia was educated in the public schools of Sumter County and was a graduate of Sumter High School's Class of 1996.

Felicia, affectionately known as Lisa, embodied a beautiful smile and contagious laugh which brought joy to all who knew her. She was a loving mother, devoted daughter, cherished sister, and treasured family member. Known throughout the community for her fun-loving nature and gentle spirit, she was deeply loved by everyone she encountered. Her presence was comforting, her laughter uplifting, and her heart full of love. She found simple joy in watching movies and spending time with those she held dear.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her son, Jafarr Davis of the home; her sisters: India Taylor of Columbia SC, and Lakeshia Banks of Sumter, SC; her brothers: Willie Fortune Jr. of Bishopville, SC, Reginald Lowery (Beverly) of Sumter, SC, and Kenneth Jackson of Jacksonville, Florida.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, MyAngel Janay Taylor; her grandmother, Rosa Lee Taylor; her grandfather, Eddie Taylor; her cousin, Ovieonce (Peach) Taylor.
