

My (GiGi) Beulah Maddox

*A mother, grandma, great-grandmother
A sister to those she held so dear.
A life of faith and love sincere,
With bonds of care that drew us near.*

*She served the Lord with gentle grace,
And shared his light in every place.
Her prayers were strong, her heart was kind,
God's steady peace in her we'd find.*

*She taught by love, by word, by deed,
To trust the lord in times of need.
Now safely home in heaven above,
Resting in God's eternal love.*

Until God calls us home, we'll meet again.

Reflections of Life

Beulah Mae Young Maddox was born October 5, 1950, in Albany, Georgia. She was the fifth child in the union of the late Willie Lee Young, Sr. and Sarah Sibley Young.

From a very early age, Beulah was taught the Word of God and the importance of living a life of strong character and loving kindness. She was a life-long, devoted member of the Church of the Living God where her spiritual gifts were nurtured and she availed herself in unparalleled service. Her unfaltering journey brought multiple levels of service in numerous ministries, including co-founder of "The Willing Working Band" which provided summer Vacation Bible School experiences for youth in Albany and surrounding areas until 2004.

Beulah Mae was joined in holy matrimony to her friend and soulmate, George Maddox. Together, through their shared love for God, they endured many life challenges and created a home filled with joy and abiding love. Her love for her family was boundless.

Beulah's work ethics developed early as she engaged in a very diverse professional career. She began her early work experience alongside her mother at Billy's Bakery in Midtown Shopping Center, baking cakes, pies, and doughnuts. She later worked with her sister in the laundry department at Howard Johnson Hotel for numerous years. Her work evaluations consistently reflected her commitment to excellence until retirement.

In Loving Memory Of Beulah Maddox (Auntie Shawty)

Beulah Maddox Lived her faith out loud,
Not just in words, but in deeds each day.

A founding hand, a steady heart,
She showed us all a better way.

Through song and service, work and praise,

The Willing Working Band was born,

A legacy of love and faith

That countless lives are shaped upon.

She led our youth with gentle strength,

A guiding light through growing years,

Teaching us God's enduring truth

With patience, hope, and caring tears.

And in the moments praise ran deep,

Her voice would rise for all to hear.

"Oh my Lord Jesus," she would sing

With faith so strong and joy so clear

Though now she rests in heavenly peace,

Her work on earth is clearly done.

Her lessons live, her spirit sings,

Her race well run, her victory won.

~ Letabian Lee

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."
