In Loving Memory of
Malri Leah Bignell
July 9, 2008 - June 16, 2026

Malri, so cute, elfin-ish, an almost fairy tale aura. I loved her before she was born. She said little as a toddler, even in her teenage years. But when she did speak, she was heard. Her words were deeply genuine and innocent. A lot of the times gut busting funny.

Malri was admirable, not only through the eyes of a mother but anywhere her presence was and likely when her presence is now. Malri was tested from the early age of 4, so unfair and brutally heart breaking. Still Malri was beautiful.

I try to understand how this could be happening. How and why was she dealt such an unfortunate hand in life, so innocent and underestimated. She knew it too and could not cope with the consequences of other's blind careless actions.... My baby girl, I love you so purely, infinitely, undeniably, so, so much.

It's a tragedy to me to see the dream is over. I never will forget the day we met my girl. I'm gonna miss you. Peace be with you. Love Mom.

Malri Leah Bignell was born Wednesday, July 9, 2008, at The Pas, Manitoba to Memri Bignell and Arlen Bloomfield.

Malri passed away peacefully with family by her side Tuesday, June 16, 2026 at the Health Sciences Centre, Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the age of 17 years.
