Reflections of Life

John 14:27

*I am leaving you with a gift – peace of mind and heart.
And the peace I give the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid.*

JOE NATHAN BROWN, JR. was born on August 29, 1959, in Baltimore, Maryland to Larce M. Cannon and Joe Nathan Brown, Sr. Transitioned from this life on October 15, 2023.

Joe, better known as Joe Brown, Dusty or Fish received his education through the Baltimore City Public Schools System. He. Started his career as a Cement Finisher with his cousins in the early eighties.

Joe received his spiritual foundation at St. James New Birth Holiness Church under the leadership of the late Bishop James R. Williams. Recently, he became a member of Restoration Christian Ecclesia, Spiritual Father being Bishop Christopher E. Windley.

Joe, along with Angela bought forth one son, Kareem Joseph Brown. Joe was one in a million. His unique personality was displayed wherever he went. Whether it was good or bad. He was well known by many and would often let it be known he was Joe Brown. With his bizarre sense of humor and his love for women, you could not tell him he was not a ladies' man and the life of the party. Loved by most, disliked by some. He was our JOE BROWN.

Joe loved venturing out into the streets of Baltimore via Fells Point, Homeless shelters, Lexington Market, tailgating at the Ravens Stadium, just to name a few. Joe loved to cook his gourmet meals and often spent weekends in Atlantic City. He was a Big Baltimore Ravens fan. One more time for Joe "LET'S GO RAVENS!" He will be missed sorely.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Larce Cannon, his father Joe Brown; two brothers, Arthur Fleming and Curtis Cannon.

Joe leaves to cherish his lifetime: one son, Kareem J. Brown; two grandsons, Kareem Brown, Jr. and Khayden Brown; one Granddaughter, Ma-Kailah Brown; two sisters, Anges Lane and Lorraine Cannon; one brother, Frankie Howell; one aunt, Mother Joyce Cannon; one Sister-In-Law, Mother Bernadine Fleming; his road partner and niece Jessica King; a host of other nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews; one goddaughter Elder-Designate Edna Askins; his Men's Group Sport, Tom, Joe, Marcus, Chris, and Lee; a devoted friend, Denise Little; and a host of loving family and friends.

Benediction

Recessional

In Memory of My Dad
If I could write a story, it would be the greatest ever told. A kind and loving soul with a heart of gold. The day you left me my heart broke into a thousand pieces. I wish you were still here with me, but I know that God called you home. Although it's not easy to find the words to say how much I will miss you each day. I'll always remember that special smile, that caring heart your warm hugs you gave me. The fact that you are no longer here with me, it fills my heart with pain. I wish I had just one last chance to have one more hug and sit down with you. So, no matter how much time will pass, just know I'll always miss you, all day, every day. Keep shining bright in heaven so you can light my way through.

Love, Your one and only son
Kareem

Family Tree

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I hear a voice that whispers, "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs.
The good I lived while I was here. Continue my heritage,
I'm counting on you. Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I was truly blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall.
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin.
Until that day we're together again.*

Lovingly Submitted, Your Sisters Agnes & Lorraine

For My Uncle

*I have so many memories
Of the times we spent together,
and even though you've no longer here, I'll cherish them forever.
I miss your laughter so much and mischief in your smile.
When I feel the sadness welling up, I'll remember it a while.
For though you are no longer here,
You'll never be truly gone. So long as I have these memories,
Your spirit will carry on.
So, until I see your smile again,
I'll hold you in my heart and mind.
A shining example, my uncle of the best of humankind.*

XOXO
Jessica
