Pop Pop

Life has a way of reminding us, that God's will is bigger than all

Then God comes in and reassures us,

He'll cushion our greatest falls.

Children and grandchildren are the blessings that we all wish to partake

But Pop Pops are the real lessons, that love is never ending

We will always hold close to us, that you taught us a thing or two

So here's to every hug plus love, we will never forget you.

WE PROMISE !!

Rodney

Those we Love don't go away, they walk beside us every day.

Love your siblings

Dear Rod,

I know we didn't always see eye to eye

But for reasons unknown to us, we always seemed to get by

My heart is aching, but my mind is clear, God is the master and He will always keep you near, our conversations have ended and you will always stay in my heart, so because of what I know we will never be far apart

I Love You
