

Lord, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve Thee is my share,
And this Thy grace must give.

If life be long, I will be glad,
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To welcome endless day?

Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than He went through before;
He that unto God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.

Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessèd face to see;
For if Thy work on earth be sweet
What will Thy glory be!

Then I shall end my sad complaints
And weary sinful days,
And join with the triumphant saints
That sing my Savior's praise.

My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with Him.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friends could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us this day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

DARYL I. WALLACE was born the first child to the late Mr. Earnest Lindsey and Ms. Mary Wallace on July 5, 1969. A devoted man of God, loving father, faithful pastor, and compassionate nurse, he passed away surrounded by the love of his family and the faith he carried throughout his life.

He received Christ under the leadership of Pastor Scottie Rice at Fellowship Baptist Church in Gadsden, Alabama.

Daryl was educated in the Gadsden city school system. He attended Litchfield High School and graduated in 1987. With a heart for serving others, he later pursued a career in nursing and graduated from nursing school in 2002. He dedicated his life to caring for people both physically and spiritually. On March 11, 2018, he answered God's calling into ministry and became a pastor. He was a faithful servant and associate pastor at Fellowship Baptist Church before later continuing his ministry at Heritage Baptist Church where he was a youth pastor and fill-in pastor. His love for the Lord was evident in every aspect of his life. He placed God at the head of his life and allowed him to guide every step he took. His faith was unwavering, and he worked to share God's word, encouragement, and love with everyone around him.

Outside of ministry, he was a devoted fan of Auburn Tigers football and greatly enjoyed Auburn football. Whether cheering on his team, spending time with loved ones, or helping those in need, he lived with passion, kindness, and purpose.

He will be remembered for his servant's heart, strong faith, wisdom, and the love he gave so freely to others. His legacy will continue to live on through the countless lives he touched.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his loving and devoted wife, Shanna Wallace; children, Madison (Marcus) Wallace, Darrielle (Charles) Wallace, Javin Wallace, and Daven Wallace; siblings, Ernest (Kristie) Wallace and Melanie Wallace; sisters-in-law, Tracie Ayala and Kristie (Anthony) Morris; aunts, Virginia Gaddis, Carolyn (Freddie) Jackson, Priscilla Frazer, Jackie Simmons, and Martha Wallace; uncles, William (Annase) Gaddis, James (Faith) Dickson, and William (Esther) Dickson; nieces, Erica (Yusef) Wallace, Sequoia (Obi) Brown, Danielle Wallace, Kristian Burnett, Breanna Wallace, Zaria Brown, Savannah (Nick) Goodwin, Autumn McCright, and Ashley Ayala; and nephews, Justin (Kendall) Ayala, Tyler (Ashley), and Kameron Burnett. He also leaves a host of other relatives and many dear friends.
