

I felt the light of heaven
it was shining down on me,
I heard His voice, He called my name,
“my child, come follow Me;”
There is no pain, there is no hurt
nor sadness anywhere,
In heaven there is joy and love
and I’ll be waiting there;
For on the day I left this earth
I felt your many tears,
And now I watch you from above
and keep you very near;
It hurts to be apart from me, but
be patient for the day,
When we meet again in love and peace
when you too come this way.

Arrangements By: Hickey Funeral Home, Chamberlain, SD

Roxanne Houska, age 58, of rural Pukwana, South Dakota, died on Tuesday, October 25th, 2022 at her home.

Roxanne Kay Houska was born Dec. 4th, 1963, at Mitchell, South Dakota. Roxanne attended Chamberlain High School and worked various jobs in Chamberlain after that. The last job she worked for the past ten years was at Chamberlain Food Center. She loved working with all the employees there and also visiting with all her customers.

Roxanne loved animals, especially all of her cats. She always took wonderful care of them. She also loved growing flowers in the yard.

Grateful for having shared her life are her sister Carmen Huffman (Tim) of Kadoka, South Dakota, her brother Kevin Houska (Paulette) of rural Pukwana, South Dakota, her nephews Curtis Huffman (Casey) and sons Corbin and Camdyn of Webster, South Dakota, Keith Huffman (Lindsay) and daughters Ariella and Abbi of Rapid City, South Dakota, Brandon Houska (Rebecca) of rural Chamberlain, Jared Houska, Mitchell, South Dakota, and Trevor Houska of Oacoma, South Dakota, and also a very special friend, Wyane Wingert of Kimball, South Dakota.
