

Acknowledgement

The family of Velma Rose Moore wishes to express our deepest gratitude for the many acts of love, kindness, and support shown to us during this time of loss. Your prayers, visits, calls, flowers, meals, and words of comfort have strengthened us more than you will ever know. We are especially grateful for those who cared, helped, and stood by us throughout her journey, as well as those who continue to lift us in prayer. Every gesture of compassion has been a blessing, and we sincerely appreciate each of you. May God bless you richly for the love you have shared.

Celebrating THE LIFE & LEGACY

Velma Rose Moore

Velma Rose Moore was born on February 27, 1953, in Paris, Tennessee, to the late Robert Odell and Velma Earl Long. She was educated in the Henry County School System and later began her career at Dana Inc. in Paris, TN, where she worked faithfully until her retirement.

Velma accepted Christ at an early age and loved the Lord deeply. Her faith was evident in the way she lived, loved, and served. She will always be remembered as a devoted mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend. Velma truly loved her family and friends, and she showed that love in every way she could.

On July 4, 1998, Velma united in marriage to Terrence Wayne Moore. She cared for him with unwavering devotion through his most challenging health moments until his passing on April 5, 2021.

She was preceded in death by three brothers: Robert Earl Long, Edward Long, and Greg Long.

Velma leaves to cherish her loving memory, her brothers; Odell (Jeannie) Long, George (Faye) Long, and Louis (Ikie) Long, four sisters; Robbie Hudson, Peggy Jackson, Bettye Pratt, and Justine (Lowyless) Glasper; her son; Jeffery (Undria) Moore; stepdaughter; Paula Moore one granddaughter; Lokia Moore; one grandson; Adrian Newbill; one great-grandson; Rakari Taylor, five sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, honorary nieces and nephews; Nocy Long, Eric Long, Corey Long, and special friend Janice Wilson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever love and remember her.

Velma's life was one of quiet strength, faith, and compassion. Her legacy of love and kindness will continue to shine in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
Then an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand
The angel said my place was ready
In heaven for above
And then I'd have to leave behind all
That I dearly love
But when I walk through heavens gates
I felt so much at home
Forgot I look down smiled at me and told me
Welcome home
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart

Scripture

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

"These we love don't go away they walk beside us every day unseen, unheard but always near, still loved, still missed, and forever dear."
