THE STORY OF MOTHER

EMMA Brown

DECEMBER 15, 1931 ~ FEBRUARY 23, 2023

Emma Snow Brown was born December 15, 1931, and peacefully passed away on February 23, 2023, at the Grove Park Health Care and Rehabilitation Center. She was the sixth of thirteen children to her mother, Lou Alice Brown, and her father, Cephus L. Brown. Her sisters were Sindy, Mildred, Hazel, Pearlean, Ethel, Lorene, Louise, Eva Mae, Betty, Sadie, and Christina Jackson. Her brothers were Caesar and Nathaniel. Emma graduated from Mecklenburg Training School and worked at Costco Willard in Boydton, Virginia, before moving to Newark, New Jersey. When she moved to New Jersey, she lived at 97 Camden Street; she became The Candy Lady, The Avon Lady, and The Tupperware Lady. She then later became a 'Pool Shark' at the 351 Club, where she used to work as a bartender. Emma worked at the Bergen Street diner as well. She was doing it all. She held weekend card games where she'd be selling dinners and giving bus rides to the casinos every Friday up to her passing and did all these things while being glammed up. Emma was also a true woman of God. She was even the mother at Noah's Ark House of Prayer. But not only was she devoted to God, but she was devoted to her children, grandchildren, and great- grandchildren. Her children are Alvin, Christopher, and Veronica Brown, as well as the Brooks, Darling, Garns, Web, Williams, Starks, Collado, Dobson, Thomas, Garmony, Sewell, Edward, Romero, Hernandez, Campbell, Estevez, Diaz, Obery, Rawson, Richardson, John, Avila, Bautista, Cubias, Galindo-Muñoz, Thompson, Barbie, Tirado- Candia, Quintero-Tobon, Sanchez- Milanes, Hassan, Oviedo, Cohen, Ms. Martha, Ms. Gineva and many more. Her grandchildren were Angelina Emma Brown, Guadalupe Enriquez, Andrea Enriquez, Mía Noemi Avila, Aminah Garmony, Lamar Garmony, Tavis Robinson, and many more. Her great-grandchildren were Mía Garmony, Zemar Garmony, and many more. As for friends, Emma had none because she considers everyone her family. Not only that but; she would never turn her back on anyone. If you're hungry, she will feed you; if you need clothes, she'll give them to you; and when it comes to love, whether you think you need it or not, she will always, without a doubt, give it to you.
