My Favorite Auntie

I'm going to miss you calling me Patpoo and Tootsie Wootsie. I'll make sure I take care of your room. Thank you for sneaking me coffee while everyone was asleep. You saved me from many, many whoopings.

I love you.

In Memory of
My Dear Sister

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his loving arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."
God broke my heart again to prove to me
He only takes the best
God knew you were in pain.
He stood by your side and said
"Come and take your rest."
When I am feeling blue,
I will never forget a sister like you
Love, Your sister, Deborah

Thankful

By Bubba

I heard her say "LORD JESUS," many times during her illness. My interpretation of Lord Jesus when she said it: "Lord, take these chains of life off of me I can't take them anymore, that long dark cloud is coming down and it's getting dark too dark to see, I'm knocking on heaven's door." Her wish was granted, she transitioned from her earthly home to her heavenly home on the other side.

I will miss her and I'm sad.

In the most compassionate and benevolent of ways for my sister Pearl.

LORD JESUS I'M THANKFUL.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friends could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us this day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.
