Poem Come to Me

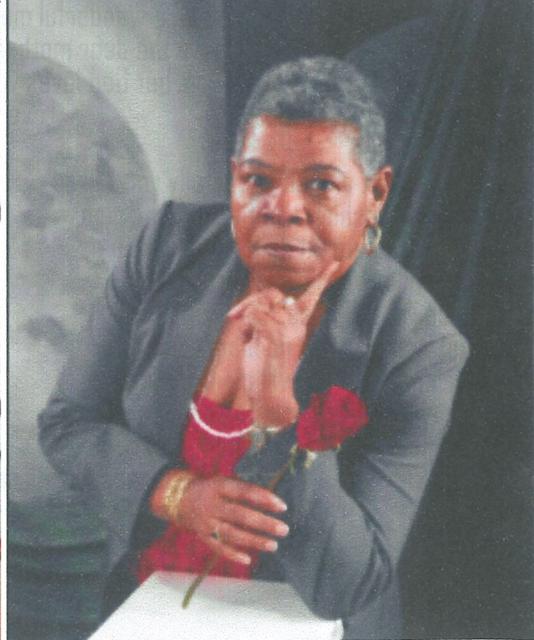

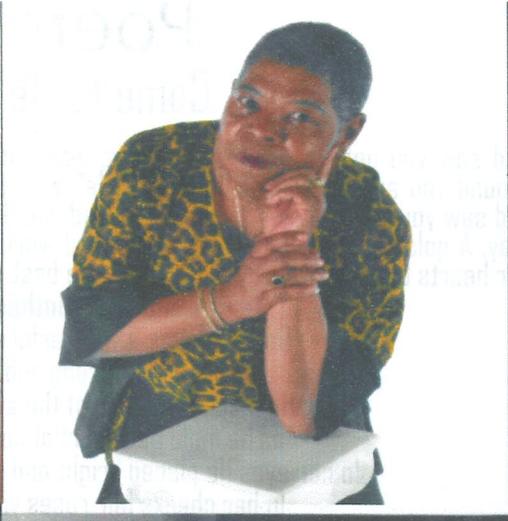

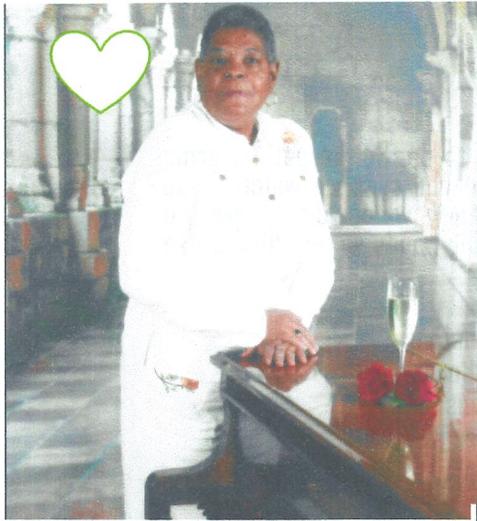

God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So, he put his arms around you and whispered "Come to Me" with tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, he only takes the best.

A Wonderful Mother

God made me a wonderful mother
One who was strong and Bold
He made her smile of the sunshine
And he mold her heart of pure gold.
In her eyes He placed bright and shining stars.
In her cheeks fair roses you see.
God made a wonderful mother
And he gave the dear mother to us.
We love you, but God loves you best.
Love, Your Children

To Grandmother

Humbly you walk and so peacefully you talked
Through the sunshine and through the rain,
Giving encouragement, hope and love to us,
Love that will always remain:
Your voice we will miss,
Your footsteps we will no longer hear,
But their imprints, we will gladly follow,
As memories of you we hold dear,
So sleep, dear and peaceful may you rest
Your Loving Grandchildren and Great Grands
