

SARAH'S FAVORITE SCRIPTURE:
PSALM 139:1-18

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me.

2 You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.

3 You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.

4 Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely.

5 You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

7 Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?

8 If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

9 If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea,

10 even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.

11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,"

12 even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

13 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

15 My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

16 Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

*17 How precious to me are your thoughts, [a] God!
How vast is the sum of them!*

18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand—when I awake, I am still with you.

LIFE Reflections

Sarah Ann Boyette was born on October 5, 1947, in Center Ridge, Arkansas, to the late Cassie and Eddie Reed. She was the fifth of eight children: Melvin Hawkins, Wilma Virgil, Ola Nelson, Lois Devlin, Eddie Reed, Ellis Reed, and Sandra Baker. She peacefully transitioned from this life on the morning of August 29, 2026. Sarah committed her life to Christ at an early age and as a young adult, moved to Kansas City, where she would build a life centered around faith, family, service, and love. Sarah married Frank Boyette on June 17, 1981, and from their union came two children, Frederick Reed (Brenda Reed) and Sarita Boyette. Following the passing of her youngest sister, Sandra, Sarah lovingly opened her heart and home to raise her niece, Niyko Baker, whom she loved as her own.

Sarah was blessed with a special gift for loving, nurturing, and teaching children. Professionally, she worked as an Early Childhood Paraprofessional until her retirement. Even after retiring, her love for children continued to shine as she worked in childcare, pouring into the lives of young people. Her passion for children extended far beyond her profession. She faithfully served as a Sunday School teacher for much of her life and as a youth counselor, continuing in ministry until her health began to decline. Sarah had a deep desire to teach children about Christ and help them grow in their faith.

Sarah was diagnosed with Hoskins Lymphoma over thirty years ago. Though God healed the cancer, the treatment caused decades of health challenges that ultimately led to her last moments. Sarah leaves to cherish her memory her two children, Frederick Reed (Brenda Reed) and Sarita Boyette; her daughter by love, Niyko Baker; her grandchildren; her siblings, Ola Nelson, Eddie Reed, and Ellis Reed; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, church family, and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Boyette; her parents, Cassie and Eddie Reed; and her siblings, Melvin Hawkins, Wilma Virgil, Lois Devlin, and Sandra Baker.

Sarah will forever be remembered for her kindness, her love for others, her devotion to her family, her faithfulness to God, and the sweet and gentle spirit she carried throughout her life. Her legacy lives on in the children she taught, the people she served, the family she loved, and the many lives she touched.

As her family, we thank God for the precious years He allowed us to share with Sarah on this side of eternity. Though we will deeply miss her presence, her smile, her love, and her sweet spirit, we find comfort in knowing that her life was rooted in Christ and that this goodbye is not forever.

We celebrate a life well lived, a faith faithfully demonstrated, and a legacy of love that will continue through generations.

Until we meet again, Sarah will forever live in our hearts.
