Obituary

Linda Francis (Bowden) Sinclair was born on Friday, October 10, 1947, in Boston, Massachusetts to the late Walter and Delores (Santos) Bowden. Linda graduated from Jamaica Plain High School and went on to attend OIC (Opportunities Industrialization Center) where she earned a certificate in electronics. She went on to work at Adivox Hearing Aid Company and later landed her dream job at Raytheon, where she worked for 25 years until retirement.

Linda gave her life to the Lord at an early age and joined Concord Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Owen Caldwell. After being away from the church for many years she rededicated her life to Christ and joined Holy Tabernacle Church. Linda loved the Lord and took every opportunity to share the Good News of His love and faithfulness to everyone who crossed her path. She would always ask "Did you say your prayers today?"

Linda became involved with the Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) sharing her life story and witnessing to her Sisters and Brothers. Known as La to friends and relatives and affectionately called Aunt Linda by her nieces, nephews and their friends, Linda was a loving, devoted and nurturing Aunt, instilling in them the need for a good education and her love of travel and the arts. Linda always found time to listen, give advice or help her family and friends.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents and her siblings Dolores Wallace, Leslie Lane, Allen Lane and Timothy Lane. She leaves to cherish her memory: four nieces Marie Bowden - Lockhart of Boston MA, Renee Ponder-Watkins (Donald) of Sacramento CA, Tyra Lane-Kingsland (Tomar) of Upper Marlboro MD, Christina Lane of Boston MA, two nephews David Bowden (Nedgret) of Waltham MA, Vandell Ponder (Andrey) of Boston MA, two aunts Serafina Harris and Julia Massie, two Godsons Mark and Anthony Potter, a special niece Tonya Tillery, a special nephew Joseph Lockhart and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

POEM

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today,
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched,
for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.
