I'm so extremely glad that when Life threw me problems I didn't have to call Saul
I pick up the phone and call my uncle Paul.
He was always there to share some wisdom
He stood his ground and Never gave in to the system.
I'll miss his laugh his smile and how he lit up every room
And how he would call you out if you were acting like a baboon
He said what he felt and meant it with his whole being
And if more of us were like him it would be so incredibly freeing
He was love by many his whole entire life
And he stood up and fought for what he thought was right.
He was more than a husband a father an uncle and a friend
And you'll never find another that is anything like him
Now rest in Heaven my uncle and my friend
And enjoy your mansion until we meet again.
