

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand, I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace ... at close of day
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wants me now ... He set me free.

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF

CLARENCE LEE ANDERSON

Clarence Lee Anderson, known to everyone as 'Pee-Wee', was a loyal and reliable man who brought laughter to every room he entered. Born on May 14, 1966, in Midland, Texas, he lived a life full of love and laughter. He spent his years in various places, including Houston, Texas, Phoenix, Arizona, and Midland, Texas, before settling in Aurora, Colorado.

Clarence was a man of many talents. He had a knack for working on cars and was always ready to lend a hand when car trouble occurred. His love for horse riding was unparalleled, and the sight of him on a horse, with a broad smile on his face, is a memory cherished by all. He had a soft spot for dogs and was often seen taking care of them, treating them like family. His love for the beach was evident in his lively spirit whenever he spent his days by the shore. Clarence was also the favorite uncle, always reliable and present in the lives of his great-nieces and nephews.

Pee-Wee was someone who truly understood the value of family. His love for his family was immense, and he always strove to be the best father, brother, and uncle he could be. His love and care extended to his great-nieces and nephews, whom he treated as his own.

He is survived by his children, Tasha, Michael, Clarence, and Quan'Darius Anderson; his sisters, Shirley Simmons-Kiser and Vonell Simmons-Branski; his nieces, TeWanda Simmons-Wilder (Maurice); Lois Simpson Simmons; his nephews, Wayne (Priscilla), Andre, and his great-nephews and nieces, David Joshua, Meo Jevon Nell, Maurice Jr., Ray Ray Janay, Jasmine Laila, Charlie, Jaque. He also has a ton of great-great-nephews and 2 great-great-nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents, Shirley Simmons-Anderson (James) and Herman Anderson, and his great-auntie, May Lee Green.

The Bible verse, Proverbs 17:17, says, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity." This verse captures the essence of Clarence's life. He was a true friend and a devoted family man, reliable and loving in all situations. His memory will forever be cherished by all who knew and loved him.
