

God Looked

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.

He then looking down
Upon the earth

And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you

And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful

He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough,

And the hills were hard to climb,

So he closed your weary eyelids,

And whispered

"Peace Be Thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you

But you didn't go alone,

For part of us went with you

The day

God called you home.

Special Thoughts

Greg as the oldest male cousin of his maternal side of the family, always took on the role as our protector. Whether we were playing in Franklin Park, spending summers at our great grandmother's house or jumping on to mattresses from significant heights, he made sure we didn't injure ourselves.

Greg was a sensitive soul who loved The Three Stooges and his family. I will miss your bear hugs, love of music and sense of humor.

Love always,

Cousin Wendy

In Loving Memory of

Gregory Randolph

April 28, 1967 ~ June 2, 2025

U.S. ARMY

VETERAN

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 2025 at 11 AM

DAVIS FUNERAL HOME

89 Walnut Ave., Roxbury, Massachusetts

Pastor Robert Brinson, Officiating

Life Reflections

Gregory Emmanuel Randolph was born April 28, 1967 in Philadelphia, PA to Joseph E. Randolph and the late Wilma Jean Randolph.

Gregory had musical talent and was good playing the drums. He could read music and even played the drums in a talent show at the Oliver Wendell Holmes Middle School in his youth. Gregory and his brother played pop warner football together and he loved cracking jokes on people. He was a man with many skills; he was always the life of the cookout, expert on the grill. He also could fix anything you brought to him. He was a very skilled handyman.

Gregory served our country in many capacities including; the US Army, US Army Reserves, and The National Guard for a total of 18 years. After serving in the military he went on to graduate from Kaplan Career Institute in 2013.

What always could bring a smile to his face or a light to his eye, was his mother Wilma J. Randolph and his nieces and nephews. There was nothing he wouldn't for them.

Gregory leaves to cherish his memories his loving father Joseph E. Randolph, his brother Joseph A. Randolph, Sr. along with a host of beloved family and friends.

Order of Service

Organ Prelude

Adam Littlejohn

Invocation

Pastor Robert Brinson

Scriptures

Old Testament—Psalm 23

New Testament—John 14:1-8

Musical Selection

Adam Littlejohn

Remarks

Family & Friends—2 minutes please

Obituary

Read Silently

Musical Selection

Adam Littlejohn

Eulogy/Benediction

Pastor Robert Brinson

Committal

Pastor Robert Brinson