SCRIPTURE Reflections

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

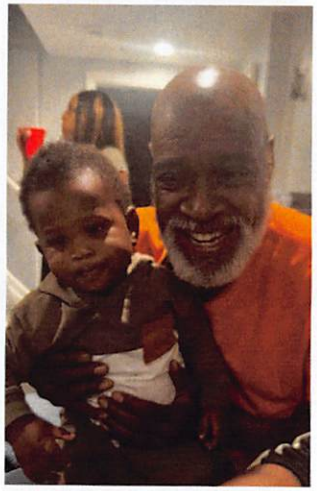

II Timothy 4:7-8

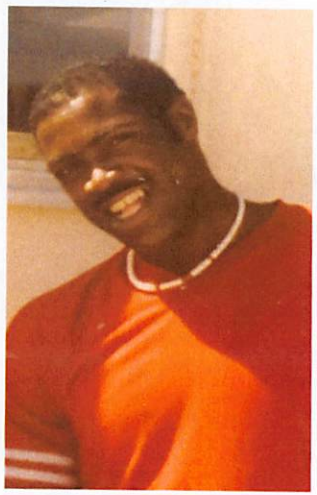

I'M HOME

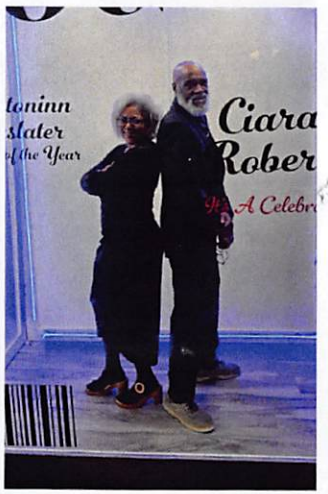

Know Him Like I Did
Praise Him Like I Did
Don't Cry; Instead Give Him, GOD the Praise
I'm Finally with my Father, who has Made a Place for Me
Miss me...Sure
Remember me... Of course, but understand I'm Never Far Away
You'll Carry Me in Your Hearts, because I Made My Mark from the Start
Smile for me!
Even Dance for Me, because I'M HOME!
Dry Your Eyes and Have a Good Time because Victory is Mine!
I'll be Sure to Gleam with the Moon and Beam with the Sun
Life is for the Living
And DAMMIT I've Won!
Oh, one more thing...
If you have any doubts
That "Somebody That Loves You Is...
ME,
Ronny with an Y not an I.E.

A legend will never be forgotten. - Robert Everson

Family losing Ronny leaves a space that none of us can fill. We will miss his voice his laughter and the way he could make us feel loved just by being himself. Ronny lived his life and he lived without regrets. As we remember him let's take that reminder to heart. Let's love while we have the chance. Let's make the phone call forgive each other and stop putting off the moments that become our most precious memories.

We will have days when the tears come before the smile and that's okay. But let's continue to dance for Ronny and sing "Somebody Loves You Baby" because it's true. Ronny was loved deeply and each of us is loved too. Every time we sing it let it remind us of him and remind us to show that love to one another.

His race has ended but the love he shared still has somewhere to go. It lives in us. I love y'all and my prayer is that we carry his memory by loving each other well. -Ciara Hampton
