FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

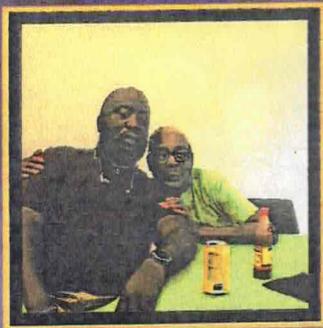

FAMILY & FRIENDS

Tributes

Mom, sometimes I wish you could come back, but I don't want you to suffer again. I know you are with me and I will always love and miss you with all my heart. Until we meet again! - Coco

They say there is a reason. They say time will heal; neither time or reason will change the way I feel. Gone are the days we used to share, but in my heart you are always there. The gates of memories will never close; I miss you more than anybody knows. Love and miss you everyday; till we meet again. Always and forever! - James

If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile. Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away. - Allen "Pook"

It's okay to miss you,
It's okay to cry.
Just know I'll never forget you.
This isn't a permanent goodbye. - Ruth

Through Memories

THE ONES WE LOVE LIVE IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER

FOREVER

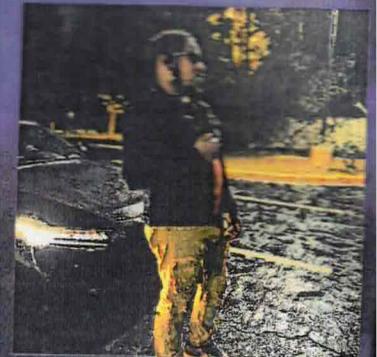

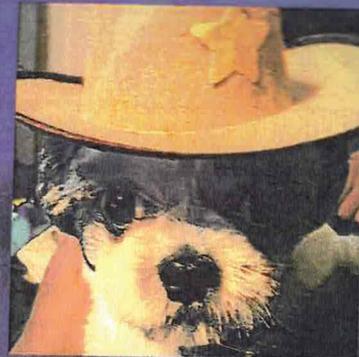

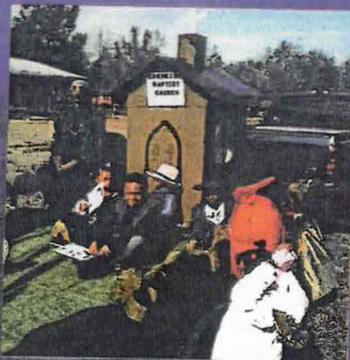

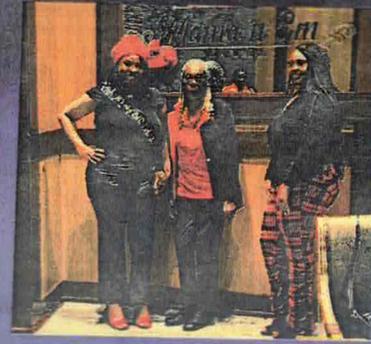

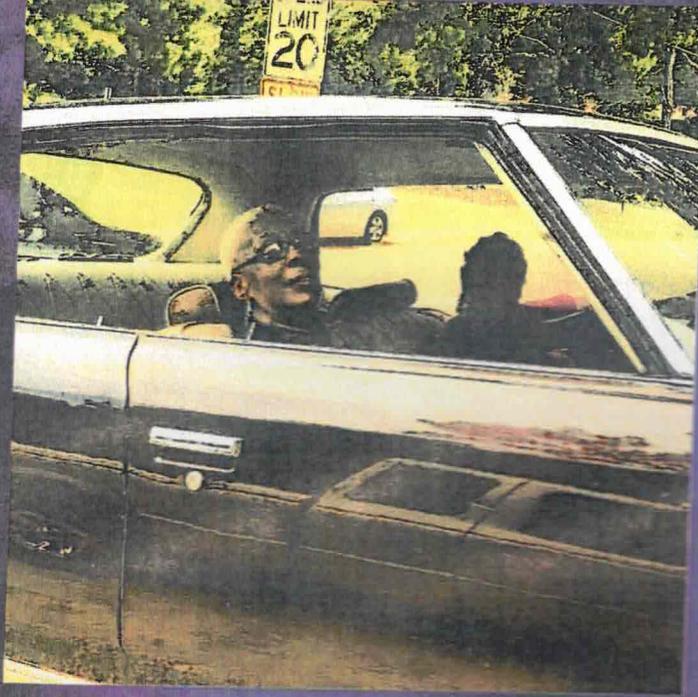

In My Heart

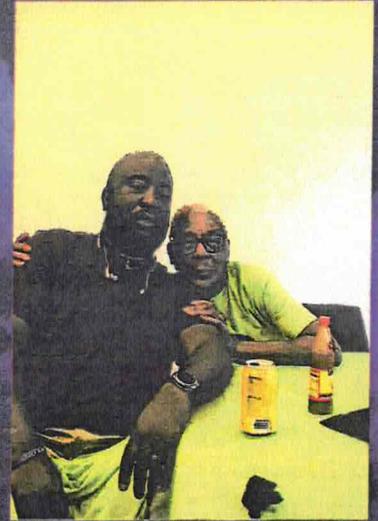

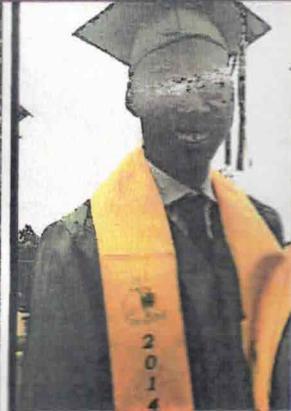

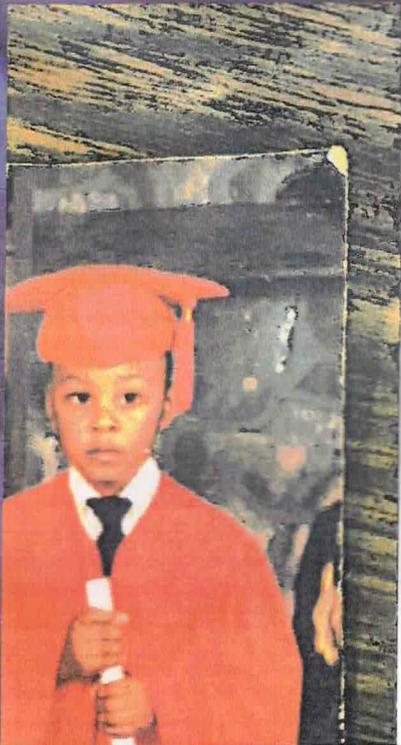

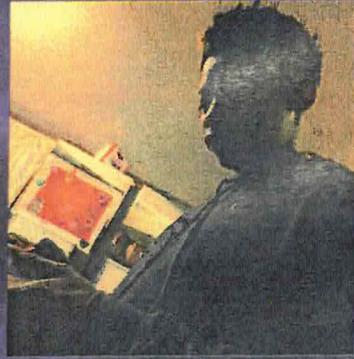

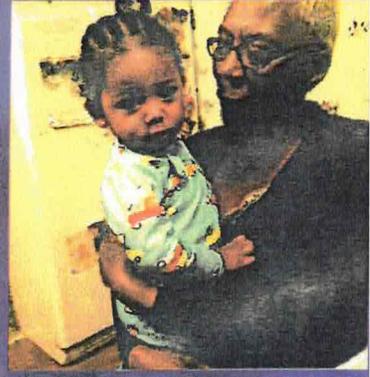

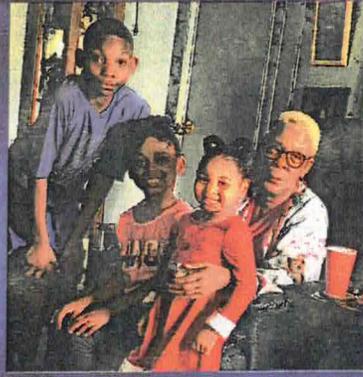

*Right now I'm in a different place
And though we seem apart
I'm closer than I ever was,
I'm there inside your heart.*

*I'm with you when you greet each day
And while the sun shines bright
I'm there to share the sunsets, too
I'm with you every night.*

*I'm with you when the times are good
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall
I'll still be there for you.*

*And when that day arrives
That we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me,
Forever in my heart.*

CELEBRATING

The Life & Legacy

Ora Jean Graham was born on August 23, 1955, to the late Earnest Triplett and Ernestine Foster-White in Philadelphia, Mississippi.

Ora accepted Christ at a young age and has been an active member of Mt. Nebo M.B Church for many years. Ora was a feisty soul who never met a stranger and never hesitated to say what was on her mind. However, her persistent devotion for children was unmatched. Ora spent years working with children ranging from Philadelphia Elementary School to Exhibit Hall Head Start and Bright Beginning Daycare. Ora adored her daycare children, and they adored her. Ora loved to sing and would frequently teach children through singing. She regularly brought them snacks and gave each child a nickname. Ora's devotion to the church and community was not unnoticed. Ora was an active member of the Choir, Usher Board, and Pastor's Aide. Ora was always present at the Saturday morning fish fries, ushering and singing in the choir. Ora made an impact on everyone she met. Her go-to was "I wouldn't tell you nothing wrong" or "I'm telling you this because I love you." Ora enjoyed telling the world good morning or sharing praise to God on social media for all to see. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, James (Alysia) Triplett of Washington, D.C. Allen (Tonya) Graham Jr of Columbus, GA One daughter, CoCo Graham-Medford of Union, MS. Six grandchildren, Airejon, Jalen T, Jason Jr, Jonathan, Princess, and Jalen M. One great granddaughter Aires's. Two sisters and Two brothers Cheryl Triplett, Amy Triplett, Fransico Wilson and Grover Lee McWilliams. A devoted friend Ruth Warren and close cousin Dollie Burton.

Rest in peace, dear Ora. Your love will forever echo in our hearts.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Ora Graham wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and sympathy during this difficult time. Your comforting words, kind gestures, and presence have been a great source of strength for us.

We are deeply thankful to Quality care Hospice and Neshoba General nursing home for their unwavering support and care of our mother during her time of need. Your help has been invaluable.

To all who sent flowers, cards, and messages of condolence, or who attended the service, we are profoundly grateful. Your thoughtfulness and compassion have brought us comfort and solace.

Thank you for being there for us and for honoring the memory of Ora. Your support means more to us than words can express.

With sincere appreciation,
Triplett/ Graham Family
