Words from Mother, sisters and Brothers

Mother

My Baby Gril, missing you. I never would have thought or imagine this day would come this soon. Another piece of my heart is gone. I know that you and JR are smiling down on us, saying you both are okay. We wanted you here with us in the flesh but God needed you to become one of his Angels. Love you Dede, sleep and rest in peace.

Kecia

To my sister I'm going to miss talking to you daily, with you trying to give me advice playing big sister, us planning our future lives, talking about our dreams and goals. I'm going to be lonely without my Baby sister no more calls no more text no more coming to see you. I know God needed you and I can't contest that, I just know a piece of me is missing that I can't never have back. I love you forever and always and I got the boys for you just like you always asked.

Jerald Roddy

I'm going to miss you Baby sister, Big Brother Jr has you now.

Karla Hudson- Sister-You are my big Sister and I miss you and love you. I will carry you in my heart and spirit forever.

They say there is a reason and I will heal with time. Neither time or reason will change the way I feel. Gone are the days we use to share, but in my heart you will be there. The gates of memories will never close. I will miss you more than anyone knows. Love you Dede Always and Forever. Till we meet again.

Willie Hudson

Dede was a Loving person she would give of herself with hesitation. She was the one who spoke her mind and how she felt. Dede was family orientated and loved everybody. I'm going to miss her, the phone calls checking her and the boys, Heaven gained a loving soul.

Happy birthday sis
