OBITUARY

Life Story of Rickey Ray Hall Jr.

Rickey Ray Hall Jr. was born on April 29, 1987 in Las Vegas, NV to Sandy Graves and Rickey Hall Sr.. Rickey was a brave and adventurous warrior, whose light will shine forever in our hearts. He sadly left our world on May 11, 2024.

At the age of nine years old Rickey became a Boy Scout with Troop 138 and found a group of boys that would become his second family. Rickey attended elementary school in Las Vegas, Nevada and in 2005 he graduated from Southern Nevada Vocational Technical Center in Henderson, Nevada, majoring in computer science later changing it to auto mechanic.

Upon graduating from high school, Rickey had several auto mechanic jobs that he enjoyed, but in search of finding his true passion, Rickey decided to give trade school a try. Rickey was sworn in as an Apprentice in 2008 and by 2013, he turned out as a Journeyman, a plumber, Pipefitter and Welder. "A true Pipe Hand" as described by his co-worker and friend.

Throughout his career, Rickey took part in helping build the Aliante Hotel and Casino as well as the Allegiant Stadium, which him and his team would later be featured in a newscast, highlighting their great work.

As we all know, Rickey was a jack of all trades and was always busy doing something. He was someone you could always call on whether it was to help you move, install a TV, or fix the brakes on your car. No job was too big! He even became an ordained minister. Rickey was the true definition of "live your life to the fullest."

Amongst his many passions, Rickey loved to hike and ride his motorcycle, including breaking it down and putting it back together. Rickey loved drawing and abstract painting. A man of many talents, a warrior of light and hope, touching lives through every interaction he had with the people he met. He is someone you could never forget.

Preceded him in death is his father Rickey Ray Hall Sr., his grandparents, Willie Pauline Graves, Luther Graves, Mollie Lee Hall and Haze Hargrove. Leaving his Legacy through his mother; Sandy Graves, he has three sisters; LaShonna Graves, Ricketta Hall and Sharee Hall. Four nieces; Laterrria Graves, TaJanae Hooks, Rickell Calbert, Delaney McCoy. One nephew; Ricky Calbert, and his favorite aunts; Vera Cherry, Connie Hall and Ophelia Lee as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Rickey's memory will be a guiding light for all who knew him.

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Matthew 5:14-16"

POEM

Loving Tribute to Rickey Ray Hall Jr.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me
When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say
I know much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an Angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand
And said my place was ready
In Heaven for above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love
But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne
He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew
I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For Every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

Loving Tribute to Rickey Ray Hall Jr.

To Our Wonderful Cousin
Of all the Special gifts in Life
However great or small
To have you as our cousin
Was the greatest gift of all
May the winds of love blow softly
And whispering your ear
"We love and miss you
And wish that you were here.

Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish not forget.

No more tomorrows we can share but yesterdays are always there.

A silent though, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever near
In our hearts forever

LOVE
