FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of Sharon D. Kiboko wishes to express our deepest and most heartfelt gratitude to all our family members, friends, neighbors, and loved ones for the many acts of kindness, prayers, calls, visits, flowers, cards, and comforting words shared during this difficult time. Your love and support have brought us strength, comfort, and peace as we honor and celebrate her beautiful life.

We extend special thanks to the doctors, nurses, caregivers, and medical staff whose compassion, patience, and dedicated care meant so much to our mother and our family.

Your kindness and support during her journey will always be remembered with sincere appreciation.

To everyone who has stood beside us in love and friendship, thank you for helping us carry the memory of our beloved mother in our hearts. May God bless each of you for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

SHARON

Kiboko

Beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt and grandmother Sharon Denise Kiboko passed away on May 2, 2026, at the age of 69. She was born June 28, 1956, at General Hospital 2 in Kansas City, Missouri. She was the second oldest born to Sam Watson Jr. and Lois Watson (Brown-Harris).

Sharon grew up in Kansas City, Missouri, where she graduated from Northeast High School. She also attended Penn Valley Metropolitan Community College in Kansas City, Missouri where she received an associate's degree in science. Although Sharon grew up in Kansas City Missouri, she later ventured off to the Northland of Kansas City Missouri at the age of 24 where she resided until the day she passed.

She married Kisute Kiboko October 6, 1991, in Kansas City, Missouri.

Sharon loved to work and held several jobs including positions at Garrison Center as a teenager, Herff Jones (the cap and gown company), the United States Postal Services, Budget inn, Alpine (Riverside nursing home), Park Hill School District, Hardee's (manager), to retiring from Lifetouch Publishing after 18 years. After retirement, she returned to work part time and retired for a second time in 2025, after 18 years, from Walmart as a AP Host (Boardwalk).

Sharon was one of a kind, she never met a stranger. Get ready when you see her. She loved to talk, and debate and was right 99 percent of the time. She loved people and was fashionable. She was loved and adored by many. She loved her family unconditionally. Although playful and kind, don't buck up to her unless you are ready to be told off and had no problem taking a left hook, as she loved to tell people her dad was a professional boxer back in the day. She was the only person that could hold a conversation with a stranger and end it with a hug of love. She was a huge fan of 2pac and loved to dance no matter the genre of music. She was preceded in death by her parents, Sam Watson Jr., Lois (Brown-Harris), sister, Stephanie Watson, and grandson, Calvin L. Watson Jr.; nephews, Lon Watson and Leland Watson.

Sharon is survived by her 3 children; One daughter, Autumn L. Watson; and two sons, Calvin L. Watson and Willis L. Watson; 4 sisters: Linda Cason, Veronica Watson-Perkins, Malica Page, and Cynthia Watson; 5 brothers, Samuel L. Watson III, Aaron Watson, Eric Watson, Ottis Peeler, and Timothy Crutchfield Jr.; her grandchildren: Keshia Jean, Willis Watson, Darrell King, and Marzya King; bonus son, Philip and bonus granddaughter, Rilyn; plus, a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

WHEN THE SUN SETS FOR ME

When the sun sets for me
Through the midst of all your tears
Know that I'm in Paradise,
With those we hold so dear.
When next you see a sunset, whether it be spring or fall,
Think how my soul must have leapt for joy,
When I heard my Savior call.
When next you see a sunset,
Hear my laughter, remember my smile
Know that we'll be together again, in just a little while.
As the sun sits yet high in the sky
Bask in the warmth of it's gentle rays
Know that I'm there in your heart with you,
At the start of each new day.
Remember our love for one another
In each new sunset you see;
Because my love for you, will continue to shine
Even after the sun sets for me.

FAVORITE SAYINGS OF SHARON

1. Work, work, work, work, and get an education.
2. Treat others with respect; life isn't always fair.
3. Stay positive no matter what is being thrown at you.
4. At the end of the day be thankful for what you have, and don't compare yourself to others, and stop worrying, what is meant to happen is meant to happen.

REMEMBERING MOM — A DAUGHTER'S MESSAGE

Words can't express how heartbroken I am that I won't be able to see or hug you again. I lost my best friend. Although you gave me the blueprint for how to live life, you didn't give me the blueprint for how to live without you. You touched so many people's lives, and I'm so thankful to have had a mother like you — someone who accepted everyone with open arms. Get your rest. I can't wait until we're reunited again someday.

Love always,

Autuma

REMEMBER MOM - A SON'S MESSAGE

My mother was one of God's as we all are and the end of life is part of God's work. It's the fate of all creations so as we mourn let's know that this is natural and God's will.

Love you Mom,

Calvin
