

In Loving Memory

Willing to Submit

(Neal A Maxwell)

When from thy stern tutoring
I would quickly flee
Turn me from my Tarshish
To where is best for me.

Help me in my Nineveh
To serve with love and truth
Not on a hillside posted
Mid shade or gourd or booth.

When my modest suffering
Seems so vexing, wrong and sore
May I recall what fully flowed
From each and every pore.

Dear Lord of the Abba City
Help me in my duress
To endure it well enough, and to say,
"Nevertheless".
