Obituary

Sandra Bigham Pipkins, born Thursday, September 4, 1952, in Mineola, Texas, to the parentage of Johnny and Ella Mae Bigham. Sandra was suddenly called home on Tuesday, April 8, 2025, at her residence leaving her family and friends devastated and heartbroken.

Sandra was baptized at an early age at East Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church finding fellowship and support in her community.

Sandra's educational journey began at Addie E. McFarland Elementary and High School. The foundation was set for a career dedicated to healthcare. She became a Certified CNA, Med Tech, and Physical Therapy Aide, showcasing her passion for helping those in need. Sandra led a life rich in compassion and dedication, not only to her family but also to her community through her work at Wood Memorial Nursing Home. Her commitment to caring for others earned her respect and admiration among her colleagues and the families of those she would serve.

Sandra was a devoted wife to Fred Pipkins and a loving mother. Together, they welcomed one child into the world, who sadly preceded her in death. Despite this heartache, Sandra's heart grew even larger. She would later in life meet and marry Wardell Coleman, together they opened their hearts and home to two little girls, Deseria and Alma, raising them as their own, until his demise. Her proudest accomplishments were undoubtedly reflected in her family life, contributing wonderfully to the lives of her children and grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Johnny and Ella Mae Bigham, late husband, Wardell Coleman, three sisters, Alice J. Bigham, Linda Dunlap, and Rosalita Trunnell, and four brothers James Bigham, Johnny Paul Bigham, Sr., Charles Bigham, and Glen R. Bigham.

A Tribute To Our Mother

Mother we hold you close within our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace our beloved Mother,
And thanks for all you've done.
We pray that God has given you,
The crown you've truly won.

Your Daughters Deseria and Alma
