23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Barbara Jean “Bobbie” (Hawkins) Lundy was born in Cincinnati, OH, on January 20, 1938, from the union of Leon W. Hawkins and Ermer Humphrey. Barbara Jean passed peacefully at the Hospice of Cincinnati Inpatient Unit at The Christ Hospital on October 15, 2026. Barbara Jean was the youngest of four siblings. She grew up in Walnut Hills and attended Withrow High School. In her earlier years, she was a member of Bethel Baptist Church but later converted to Catholicism. She lived her life with a gentle grace and a fierce devotion to her family, her friends, and her community.

Her last employment was at Gattles in Hyde Park, where she worked as a shipping clerk. She was a member of St. Anthony Church for many years. She was a member of the bereavement team and she took it very seriously. She was president of the Douglas School Alumni for about 3 years and a dedicated community servant. Barbara Jean poured her heart into volunteering at MEAC (Madisonville Emergency Assistance Center) she enjoyed helping those in need. Her favorite pasttimes were cooking and gardening in her yard and watching her favorite TV channel PBS.

Barbara Jean loved checking on her neighbors and just saying hello. She loved family gatherings, picnics and dancing and she was a dedicated prayer warrior.

She is preceded in death by her parents Leon Hawkins and Ermer “Sis” Humphrey. Her husband Charles E “Chief” Lundy. Her son Jerome Lundy. Her sister Emma Lyttle, and her brothers William Hawkins and Albert Hawkins.

She leaves to mourn her son Gregory Lundy (Marie) and daughter Barbara Sharon Lundy and daughter in law Sheila Lundy. Three sister in laws, Donna Hawkins, Marilyn Hawkins and Louise Cole. She also leaves to mourn her grandchildren Eric, Ashley, Ethan and Matthew Lundy and 2 great grandchildren Constance and Madelyn Lundy, and a host of cousins, nieces, great nieces, nephews and great nephews.

She lived well, laughed often and loved deeply. Her memory will live on in our hearts forever.
