Obituary

*“A light from our household has dimmed.
A voice we loved has been stilled.
A place is vacant in our hearts that can never be filled.”*

On the early morning of December 31, 2024, an angel came and summoned the bright spirit of our dear Mother, Caroline C. Lane-Nixon. Her lips were sealed, and her soul entered Eternal Rest.

Caroline was born on February 10, 1933, to Jerry D. Lane and Eula Handy in Opelousas, Louisiana. Caroline grew up with a strong Christian foundation and Godly parents. She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized under the Catholic faith, attending Catholicism with her siblings. Caroline attended the public schools of St. Landry Parish.

Caroline moved to Baton Rouge, Louisiana as a young adult and worked in the service industry. Caroline met and married John Nixon, Sr. She loved to dress, smell good, and cook. After her divorce, Caroline moved to New Iberia, Louisiana, where she lived for several years. In the early 2000s, Caroline moved to Austin, Texas, near family. Her circle of life grew, and she became comfortable with the Texas lifestyle. Her cooking of Cajun food was a hobby for her because her family enjoyed it so much. Her favorite dish to serve was Gumbo. Being a people person, Caroline was a joy and loved to make people laugh.

Awaiting Caroline's arrival in Glory are her parents, and her siblings, Joseph Ballard, Tony Jenkins, Aldridge Jenkins, and Junius Lane. Caroline led a rewarding life as she desired, for her legacy is endless.

Caroline was blessed with ninety - one years, and she leaves in God's hands to cherish her memories, her three sons, Roy Lane J. and wife Eunice Lane, Leander Jett, Jr., John Pernell Nixon, Jr., wife Masika Sanders, four grandchildren, Eunice Lane, Troy Lane, Damian Lane, Leslie Lane, Roy Lane, Jr., Bruce Edmondson, and twenty great-grandchildren. Caroline also leaves one sister, Mary Lane, her daughter, Carolyn Roberson, and her husband, Robby Mitchell, great niece and nephew, Robbyn Mitchell and Joseph Mitchell, and a host of friends and relatives extending to Louisiana.

Celebration Service

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Amen

Expressions of Gratitude

We want to thank everyone for your prayers, kindness, and support during this time of bereavement. Perhaps you dropped by to say hello or call on the telephone. Maybe you visited us for a while to keep us from being alone. You have sent us flowers or cards to show you cared. Whatever kindness you extend is accepted with sincere gratitude and everlasting thanks. May God continue to pour his blessings on each of you. We ask that you continue to keep us in your prayers.

Sweet Caroline

Mama!

It is all I ever knew when it came to you.

When I mention your name, I remember everything you seen me through.

Here is one short, sweet poem that I wrote for you.

God pass this message to Mama,

It's long overdue.

You brought me sunshine when I only saw rain,

You brought me laughter when I only felt pain,

You brought me peace when at times my mind seems drained,

You built my confidence when life played its game,

Now you are gone,

some things may never be the same.

Sweet Caroline, I will forever Love,

Cherish, and Honor your name.

I Love You, Mama.
