

Miss Me... But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that once we shared. Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.

It's all a part of the master plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.

Laugh at all the things we used to do.

Miss me... but let me go.

Angela Taylor, known as Angie, Gmaw and Squeakee. Angie of Hughes Springs passed away November 4, 2025, with her loving husband by her side, John Taylor. Angie was 52 years old and was born in Shelby County, Tennessee. She touched the lives of many from her kids and grand babies to even a stranger on the street. Angie spent many years employed and always dedicated and gave her best at the jobs she held, and sometimes that was multiple job. Outside of work she always managed to spend time with family and friends. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Her grandchildren were her world, and she made sure they knew that. She enjoyed riding backpack on John's Harley, camping, burning a fire, and listening to good music.

Angie is survived by her husband, John Taylor, of Hughes Springs, Tx. Her mother, Carolyn Favors; of Winnsboro, Tx. Son Marcus Wetzal and wife Whitney; of Hawkins, Tx. Son Austin Wetzal and wife Taylore; of Winnsboro, Tx and Son Case Ellison; of Hughes Springs, Tx.; and her 6 grandchildren; Brother Jo Bob Bennett and wife Shana; of Celesta, Tx; sister, Casey Plunk; of Winnsboro, Tx, and Aunt Jo Ann Bennett; of Winnsboro, Tx. She will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved her.
