

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, in life we loved you dearly, in death

we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Obituary

Curtis Dayron Lowe, the youngest of three, was born on November 19th, 1983 to Carole Lowe and Charles Hanley of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Curtis was affectionately known as "Caiche" or "150".

Curtis attended Cincinnati Public Schools and worked various jobs.

A devout religious individual, he was a member of Phillips Memorial CME Church and participated in worship with friends and family. Curtis also attended with his father, occasionally Emmanuel Apostolic Temple.

He loved listening to gospel music, dancing and playing cards with family and friends. Curtis's passion was his first nephew and niece, David and Da Maya, in which he was both uncle and father to them. Curtis also loved his aunts and uncles deeply.

He was excellent at cooking due to his mother, especially on holidays and special occasions. He also enjoyed spending time and cooking with his best bud and cousin, Denise Davenport, who preceded him in death.

To everyone he encountered Curtis was a remarkable person, known for his warm and quirky nature. He never met a stranger. He was known for his outspoken nature and never held back his opinion, always speaking his mind. Curtis enjoyed spending time with family, friends and particularly his close friend T. J. Curtis had a unique talent for hair and fashion, particularly the latter.

Curtis departed this life on March 10, 2025 at Hospice of Cincinnati Christ Hospital Inpatient Unit.

Curtis leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Carol (Larry) Malachi; father, Charles (Yvette) Hanley; brothers, David Edward Lowe, Charles Jerome (Jessica) Lowe, Larry Joe (Jessica) Malachi, Brandon Hanley, Ramon King and Javonne King; sisters, Whitney Davis, Lynethia Hanley and Lynae Hanley, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; his aunts, close friends, T. J., Carla and September and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

To My Little Brother

I'll hold you in my heart forever.
Your memory will continue to be a light that lives through Chuck and I that can't be broken even in death. Though you are gone, it will always be the three of us for life. I promise to take care of Mom like you asked me.
Your big brother David
