

Celebrating

A Legacy of Strength & Love

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He restores my soul and guides me along the right paths." – Psalm 23:1-3

James A. Schofield was born on April 9, 1959, to the late Curtis and Reather Schofield. Affectionately known as "Bowie," he was a proud graduate of Wagener-Salley High School.

Bowie loved sports, especially football, and was a true Raiders fan. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends and was known for his outgoing personality, generous heart, and wonderful sense of humor. His jokes and laughter could brighten any room. To know Bowie was to love him, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Curtis and Reather Schofield, and his sister, Latasha Schofield.

Those left to cherish his memory include his daughter, Shamecka Frazier of North Augusta, SC; sons, Terrance and Javier Frazier of Aiken, SC; brother, Curtis (Cheryl) Schofield of Wagener, SC; sisters, Carol Schofield of Wagener, SC and Debra (Robert) Davis of Fort Walton Beach, FL; godson, Charles Castle of Gaston, SC; favorite niece and nephew, Dominique and Curtis Schofield and Chancellor Frazier of Wagner, SC; ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; and a special friend, Debra Frazier of Aiken, SC.

James "Bowie" Schofield leaves behind a lifetime of memories, laughter, and love that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew him.
