

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free*

Life Profile of Mrs. Annie Pearl Hawkins

Mrs. Annie Pearl Hawkins, widow of Henry B. Hawkins, daughter of the late John and Lillie Inez Anderson, entered into eternal rest on Sunday, August 9, 2020 at 1:00AM.

Annie was the youngest of six children. She attended Duncan Elementary in Duncan, South Carolina. She also attended Hopewell where she played basketball.

Annie was an excellent artist in her youth. She was very talented with her hands. She was gifted with sewing anything she wanted without seeing a pattern; a gift she learned from her mother.

Her love for God was deeply ingrained in her soul. She was baptized at an early age, 12, at Hopewell Baptist Church. Annie loved her church, but because of many disabilities, she could not always attend. Her favorite bible passage; which she learned and spoke to her self everyday was Psalm 91.

Left to cherish fond and loving memories are her children, Charles Anderson of Greer, SC, Deborah (Morris) Mosley of Ardmore, PA, Trudy Hawkins and Kathy Hawkins both of Taylors, SC; 11 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren and a host of other family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her children Larry Anderson of Greenville and Carolyn Jones of Greer and a granddaughter Tamiqu Hawkins of Greenville; siblings Althea Grayson, Bennie Foster, Melvin Anderson, Frank Anderson, Henry Anderson and honorable mention of her niece Mae Lillie Nesbitt, for they grew up as sisters.
